“The Rock – how faultless are his deeds,
how right all his ways!
A faithful God, without deceit,
how just and upright he is. Deuteronomy 32:4

This is taken from the Song of Moses near the end of the Book of Deuteronomy. It proclaims praise to God because God has seen the Israelites through their journey. They now stand at the threshold of the Promised Land. There is an image for all of us there. We may not be at the end of our journey on earth but we all wish to stand at the threshold of that Promised Land, the Heavenly Kingdom. Continue to trust in God's faithfulness and you will be there one day.

Resurrexit sicut dixit!
