And we know that for those who love God all things work together for good, for those who are called according to his purpose. Romans 8:28

Once again, this random generator doesn't go far enough. The rest of the pericope says that those whom God calls are ones whom He foreknew and predestined and called and justified and glorified. So there is much more to this than just being called by God. But following that calling, wherever it leads, is the only way to true happiness. For God will not call you where He will not keep you.
