“There is none holy like the LORD:
for there is none besides you;
there is no rock like our God.” 1 Samuel 2:2

In the Gospels, Jesus tells us that we should be holy as His Father is holy. But, as this passage states, no one will ever match the holiness of God. We are not perfect and we will not see perfection this side of eternity. That does not alleviate our responsibility of trying to be better. Conversion is a constant struggle. It is a life long commitment. But it is the only path to holiness and perfection.
