

Deacon's Beacons

And I will ask the Father, and he will give you another Helper, to be with you forever, even the Spirit of truth, whom the world cannot receive, because it neither sees him nor knows him. You know him, for he dwells with you and will be in you. John 14:16–17

The source of all truth is God. There cannot be one truth for you and another truth for someone else. People may not accept the truth but that does not change the truth. This Post Modern world seems to have forgotten that. In the search for personal autonomy, we have fallen trap to the fallacy of personal truth. Much of this is because people have denied the authority of God. To accept God means to abide by His Truth and His Commandments. That is something that many will not do. It does not change the ultimate truth though.
