“Come now, let us reason together, says the LORD:
though your sins are like scarlet,
they shall be as white as snow;
though they are red like crimson, they shall become like wool.” Isaiah 1:18

Even before the coming of Jesus, God was promising to wash away our sins. Of course, that could not be done except by the perfect Sacrifice. But the promise resounded through the centuries. Those who heard Isaiah could not have possibly understood what must occur. But those who experienced Christ and those who see through the lens of the Redeemer can now comprehend what God had planned even then.
