The sting of death is sin, and the power of sin is the law. But thanks be to God, who gives us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ. 1 Corinthians 15:56–57

It is not the Law that saves us. It is the grace of God. But that does not mean that we should disregard the Law. Jesus Himself said that the Law will not pass away until it is fulfilled in Him. But that still does not set aside the Law. Jesus also said that one who teaches others to break the commandments will be least in the Kingdom of Heaven. So the Commandments, the Law, is still important. But our salvation does not depend on our keeping of the Law. It flows from the Blood of Christ. Yet we can risk our salvation by disregarding those Commandments while claiming faith.
