Beloved, let us love one another, for love is from God, and whoever loves has been born of God and knows God. Anyone who does not love does not know God, because God is love. 1 John 4:7–8

You cannot claim to be a follower of Jesus if you do not love. Many have claimed to do hateful things in His Name. How can those deeds be reconciled with the Gospel message? How can we call ourselves Christian if we cannot do what Jesus told us to do. He was very specific in His instructions. “Love one another as I have loved you.” In 2000 years, we have not been able to do that consistently. Maybe if we did, others would find Christianity much more appealing.
