

Deacon's Beacons

Be sober-minded; be watchful. Your adversary the devil prowls around like a roaring lion, seeking someone to devour. Resist him, firm in your faith, knowing that the same kinds of suffering are being experienced by your brotherhood throughout the world. 1 Peter 5:8–9

This is the reading for Night Prayer on Tuesdays. It reminds us that the devil is always trying to lead us astray. We cannot be too careful. We must always remain vigilant. The simplest thing could be a gateway to temptation. Be careful of whom you call friends and what you choose to consume (in literary or visual forms). These can all lead us away from God and into temptation.

Go raibh síocháin Chríost a bheith in éineacht leat.
