

Deacon's Beacons

October 28, 2025

But when the goodness and loving kindness of God our Savior appeared, he saved us, not because of works done by us in righteousness, but according to his own mercy, by the washing of regeneration and renewal of the Holy Spirit, whom he poured out on us richly through Jesus Christ our Savior, so that being justified by his grace we might become heirs according to the hope of eternal life. Titus 3:4–7

Notice that this passage talks about justification by grace and God's mercy but it also says that those who are so redeemed "might" become heirs. Justification means that we have a path to salvation. We must cooperate with that grace by choosing to change our lives. Otherwise we have no choice in the matter. That is not Free Will and that is not love.
