I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith. 2 Timothy 4:7

The Pastoral Letters have been challenged as authentic writings of Paul since the last couple of centuries. Grammar, syntax and vocabulary differ from genuine letters of Paul. The thoughts though are drawn from the teachings of Paul and could have been written by a secretary or a later complier. Regardless, these are still recognized as inspired Sacred Scripture. Putting the words of this passage on Paul's lips could be appropriate. But the larger question would be: Could these words be placed on your lips authentically?
