So if the Son sets you free, you will be free indeed. John 8:36

While this caused a stir among the leaders of the Jews, Jesus is speaking the truth. The Jews are not. They claim that they have never been slaves. They seem to forget about the time in Egypt and their time in Babylon. But Jesus is not talking about freedom in this life. He is promising the freedom that only God's grace can give. And He will seal that promise with His blood.
