No, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him who loved us.
Romans 8:37

The only way that we can conquer sin and death is through Jesus Christ. It is only through His act of love in dying on the Cross that we are freed from the bondages of human existence. We are lifted up as victors entirely because the Victor was lifted up as an offering for our sins. This was actually part of today's Gospel taken from Chapter 8 of John. And the first reading reminded us that those bitten by the saraph in the desert were healed by gazing on the bronze saraph that Moses made at God's command. It foreshadowed the lifting up of the Lamb as the healing of our sinful souls.
