

Deacon's Beacons

April 24, 2025

Consider him who endured from sinners such hostility against himself, so that you may not grow weary or fainthearted. Hebrews 12:3

Look at the Cross. See what they did to Jesus? Why would you think that being a follower of Jesus would be a cake walk? Jesus did not say "Follow Me through the lovely flowers and garden." He said, "Take up your cross and follow Me." In a society where Christianity is commonplace, we can be lulled into a sense of complacency. We need to be challenged so that we understand what it is that we must stand for. Otherwise, we are living a diluted version of the Gospel. No wonder people walk away from our faith in so great numbers. It does not seem to them to be relevant because it is not counter cultural or different in most ways that a secular life.
