Do nothing from selfish ambition or conceit, but in humility count others more significant than yourselves. Philippians 2:3

Next to loving one another, this is probably the hardest thing about being a Christian. Embracing humility is very difficult and tends to push against our very human nature. We feel that we should be honored and our dignity is sacrosanct. However, what Jesus calls us to do is very much different. Jesus Himself told us that the Son of Man came, not to be served but to serve. That is what Jesus means when He says, "Follow Me."

Resurrexit sicut dixit!

Go raibh síocháin Chríost a bheith in éineacht leat.
