“There is none holy like the LORD:
for there is none besides you;
there is no rock like our God. 1 Samuel 2:2

Jesus tells us, “Be holy as My Father is holy.” Obviously, that is not possible in this life. We can strive for holiness but we will never reach the level of the holiness of the Father. However, even though perfection may elude us, that does not relieve us of the responsibility of trying to increase our own level of holiness constantly.
