And now, little children, abide in him, so that when he appears we may have confidence and not shrink from him in shame at his coming. 1 John 2:28

God knows what we do. God even knows what we think. We cannot hide anything from God. God knows the worst parts of us and He still loves us. We can only work at rooting out our own sinfulness and trying to do better so that we can stand before God openly and without shame. Our shame is our own. God loves us regardless of what we have done. That does not mean that we should not try to do better. It also means that we need to love our neighbor even when they hurt or disappoint us.
