

Deacon's Beacons

Each one must give as he has decided in his heart, not reluctantly or under compulsion, for God loves a cheerful giver. 2 Corinthians 9:7

I always thought that verse sounded odd. The message though, is that we should be sharing the gifts that we have received from God. We can brag about how we have become successful but, in the end, all that we have is from God. God has given us the talents by which we can earn our livings. God has blessed us with health and even with breath so that we can work. So we should be willing to share with those who have less. We should do so out of love – a reflection of the love that God shows to us.

Go raibh síocháin Chríost a bheith in éineacht leat.
