Jesus then said to those Jews who believed in him, "If you remain in my word, you will truly be my disciples, and you will know the truth, and the truth will set you free." John 8:31-32

And the Jews complained that they had never been slaves. Did they forget about Egypt? Did they forget the first Passover? Jesus would be presenting a new Passover to them in just a short while. They were more concerned with their own self-image. We need to be humble and accept our reliance on God and that our true freedom is as daughters and sons of God.
