

Deacon's Beacons

August 27, 2025

“Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.” Matthew 5:3

This begins the Beatitudes. Being poor in spirit does not mean that we have to be monetarily poor. It means that we must understand our reliance on God for all that we have. We cannot boast of our accomplishments, as St. Paul says, because our talents are gifts from God. Knowing that should keep us humble.
