

Deacon's Beacons

March 27, 2026

Be doers of the word and not hearers only, deluding yourselves. For if anyone is a hearer of the word and not a doer, he is like a man who looks at his own face in a mirror. He sees himself, then goes off and promptly forgets what he looked like. But the one who peers into the perfect law of freedom and perseveres, and is not a hearer who forgets but a doer who acts, such a one shall be blessed in what he does. James 1:22–25

James calls the Church to action. We can spend time pondering Scripture and the teachings of the Church but if that is all that we do, we might as well be pondering our navels. Faith has to call us to action or it serves no purpose. If we are not changed by our faith, what is the use?
