“For God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him might not perish but might have eternal life. For God did not send his Son into the world to condemn the world, but that the world might be saved through him.” John 3:16–17

This may be one of the best known passages in the Gospels. However, it is usually listed with only Verse 16. The next verse takes the love that God shows in the prior verse and gives it purpose. The purpose is not condemnation. The purpose is salvation. If God is not condemning, then neither should we.
