“For the Son of Man has come to seek and to save what was lost.” Luke 19:10

This closes the story of Zacchaeus in the Gospel of Luke. Zacchaeus was the chief tax collector. Just like Matthew, he encountered Jesus and was transformed. Of course, people did not believe him. But Jesus did. No matter what your past may have been, Jesus will accept you. He will forgive you and He will call you to change. It is never too late as long as you are willing to turn to Him, accept His love and convert your life.
