MARTHA'S HELPERS

I write this on Thursday, July 29, the Feast of Saint Martha, the sister who offered hospitality to the Lord while Mary sat and listened.

As part of our plan to bring our budget into balance and deal with our deficit, our Parish and Finance Councils accepted my recommendation and eliminated the paid position of Church Cleaner. (I thank Lynn Albergotti for her work and express my sadness at this decision.) But the church still has to be cleaned. I invite you to become part of a ministry which I am suggesting be called "MARTHA'S HELPERS". No specifics yet but if you are interested, please give the rectory a call.

Nineteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Today we continue hearing Jesus explain to the disciples, the curious, and the skeptical that he is the bread of life, sent from heaven to give his body so that we may have life forever. First we hear Elijah, one of the greatest figures in the centuries before Christ, literally pray for death because of his desperate circumstances. He is saved by an angel of the Lord, who gives him what he needs to sustain him on his journey to God. May we today be nourished by God's word so that we may be sustained on our own journeys.
