

Villanova University - Mother Mary Lange Lecture in Black Catholic Studies

Tia Noelle Pratt, PhD, Office for Mission & Ministry, Villanova University, invites St. Barbara Parishioners to join this Lecture on Thursday, November 3rd, 7:00pm, at Villanova's Mullen Center for the Performing Arts.
Fr. Bryan Massingale, a theology professor from Fordham University, and the author of Racial Justice and the Catholic Church, will be this year's featured speaker. The evening's program will begin with the President of Villanova, Fr. Peter Donohue, OSA and the unveiling of a portrait of St. Augustine that Villanova commissioned from Dallas-based artist, Vernon Adams.

A 20 passenger motorcoach will be provided to transport us to and from Villanova University.

You must call the Parish Office by this Wednesday, September 14th, to let us know that you would like to attend.

Twenty-fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Again and again today we hear examples of those who turn away from the Lord, who wander away or become lost:
the Chosen People in the desert, Saul of Tarsus himself, a wayward sheep, a lost coin, the prodigal son. We see them all lost.
But none are ever truly lost because God will always search for them, rescue them, and welcome them back into the fold.
With repentant hearts, let us recall those times when we were lost and felt the embrace of God's mercy.
