Sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Wouldn't Jesus, the Master Teacher, have fun shredding some of our favorite cultural proverbs? I can just imagine the scene:

You have heard it said, "What happens in Vegas stays in Vegas," but I say to you, "All that is hidden shall be made clear. All that is dark now shall be revealed" (Luke 8:17).

You have heard it said, "He who dies with the most toys wins," but I say to you, "Do not lay up for yourselves treasure on earth, where moths and vermin destroy, but lay up for yourselves treasure in heaven...where thieves do not break in and steal" (Matthew 6: 19-21).

You have heard it said, "Revenge is a dish best served cold," but I say to you, "Take no revenge and cherish no grudge against any of your people" (Leviticus 19:17).

You have heard it said, "Look out for Number One, because nobody else will" but I say to you, "If you pour yourself out for the hungry and satisfy the desire of the afflicted, then shall your light rise in the darkness and your gloom be as the noonday" (Isaiah 58:10).

You have heard it said, "Life's terrible, and then you die," but I say to you, "Suffering produces perseverance; perseverance, character; character, hope. And hope does not disappoint" (Romans 5:3-5).

You have heard it said that the bible says, "God helps those who help themselves," but I say to you, "No, that's Aesop's Fables, not the bible. Go and find the Samaritan Woman at the Well, or the Man Born Blind, or Lazarus in the tomb. They will tell you that God helps those who cannot help themselves."

Ah, so true. Thanks, Jesus.

What family proverbs do you have that Jesus could easily overturn?

Sexto Domingo de Tiempo Ordinario

¿No crees que a Jesús, el Gran Maestro, le encantaría despedazar a algunos de nuestros dichos culturales favoritos? Solo imagínalo:

Ustedes han oído: "Lo que sucede en las Vegas, se queda en las Vegas," pero yo les digo, "no hay nada escondido que no llegue a descubrirse, ni nada secreto que no llegue a conocerse y ponerse en claro." (Lucas 8:17).

Ustedes han oído, "El que muere con más juguetes gana," pero yo les digo, "No amontonen riquezas aquí en la tierra, donde la polilla destruye y las cosas se echan a perder, y donde los ladrones entran a robar. más bien amontonen riquezas en el cielo, donde la polilla no destruye ni las cosas se echan a perder ni los ladrones entran a robar" (Mateo 6:19-21).

Ustedes han oído, "La revancha es un platillo que se sirve frio," pero yo les digo, "No abrigues en tu corazón odio contra tu hermano." (Levítico 19:17).

Ustedes han oído, "Cuida de ti mismo, porque nadie más lo hará" pero yo les digo, "si te das a ti mismo en servicio del hambriento, si ayudas al afligido en su necesidad, tu luz brillará en la oscuridad, tus sombras se convertirán en luz de mediodía." (Isaías 58:10).

Ustedes han oído, “La vida es terrible, y al final te mueres,” pero yo les digo, “El sufrimiento nos da firmeza para soportar, y esta firmeza nos permite salir aprobados, y el salir aprobados nos llena de esperanza. Y esta esperanza no nos defrauda” (Romanos 5:3-5).

Ustedes han oído que la biblia dice, “Ayúdame que Dios te ayudará,” pero yo les digo, “No, eso no dice la biblia, eso viene de las fabulas de Esopo. Ve y encuentra a la mujer Samaritana junto al pozo, o al Hombre que Nació Ciego, o a Lázaro en la tumba. Ellos te dirán que Dios ayuda a aquellos que no pueden ayudarse.”

Ay, tan cierto. Gracias, Jesús.

¿Qué dichos familiares tienes que Jesús fácilmente pudiera derrocar?
