JESUS CURES SIMON'S MOTHER-IN-LAW AND OTHERS

Today we continue to read from Mark's Gospel, learning more about the ministry of Jesus. Jesus cured Simon's mother-in-law, and she immediately began to serve Jesus and his disciples. Jesus also cured many others who were brought to him, healing their illnesses and driving out demons. As we will see throughout Mark's Gospel, Jesus did not permit the demons to speak because they knew his identity and would have revealed it to those who were present.

On the morning after this busy day, Jesus retreated in prayer, but was pursued by Simon and others who brought news that many people were looking for him. At this point in Mark's Gospel, we begin to see a distinct role for the inner circle of Jesus' disciples—they act as intermediaries between Jesus and the people. Jesus reports to his disciples that they need to leave Capernaum to preach in other places.

Today's Gospel completes a picture of Jesus' ministry: preaching, curing the sick, driving out demons, and then moving on to continue this work in another place. Mark's Gospel tells us that Jesus did this throughout Galilee.

Jesus' compassion and healing of the sick is a sign of the Kingdom of God. The Church continues to extend Christ's healing presence to others in its ministry to the sick. In the Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick, the Church prays for spiritual and physical healing, forgiveness of sins, and comfort for those who are suffering from illness.

In today's Gospel we also notice the importance of prayer in Jesus' daily life. Jesus rose early in the morning, removed himself from the crowds, and went to a deserted place to pray. When the disciples found him, he told them that it was time to move on. We believe that in his prayers Jesus found guidance and direction from God. We also bring our decision-making to God in prayer, asking for his guidance and direction in our lives.

PRAYER REQUESTS

We are asked to remember in our prayers: Janine Hoffman,

William O'Donnell, Linn Bramble, Sr. Madeleine Jude, Thomas Kelly, Nora Myers, Donna Buckley, Baby Olivia, Carolyn Vonner-Hill, Barbara Skorupski, Stephanie DeBoey, Bill Denny, Lori Lesutis, Johnny Descano, Bob Holmes, Jo-Ann Stigliano, Michael Kelly, Fr. Jim Martinez, Chris Magrann, Charlotte Hyer, Rebecca McDonough, all those suffering from Covid-19 and all who care for those who are sick.

Please call the Parish Office at 610-525-0147 if you would like to request yourself or a family member be put on our prayer list for the next 4 weeks. You can also make a request that the prayers of the community be renewed for another 4-week period as often as needed or desired.

DECEASED

We pray for the happy repose of the soul of Mary Grosso, and for the consolation of her family.

ADULT ALTAR SERVERS

During this time of the pandemic, when fewer people are attending church in person, there is a need for altar servers. I hesitate to assign young people to serve unless they feel free to come to Mass. If you would like to help us by serving Mass on the weekends or during FUNERALS, please contact Fr. John or call Michelle at the parish office at 610-525-0147.

Remember Not the Things of the Past:
See I Do Something New!

An Online Lenten Retreat for Thriving in "Real Life"

5 Wednesdays: February 24, March 3, March 10,
March 17, March 24 (attend any or all)

We all know that Lent is a time for renewal, but what does that really mean?

The book of Ecclesiastes says there is an appointed time for everything. Lent is an appointed season for encountering Christ in such a way that frees us to give up the blocks in our lives so we can thrive here and now in the "life that is REALLY LIFE" (1 Timothy 6:19). When this happens, we become living experiences of that life for others: Lenten renewal is about embracing life and joy.

This retreat will help us explore our individual life stories to discern what we may be invited to give up and, at the same time, what we may be invited to embrace at this point in our life journeys.

Through uncovering the wisdom within the Sunday Scripture readings, spiritual exercises, and song, we will explore steps to open ourselves to new life and joy - getting in touch with our deepest thirst, learning to see with the eyes of Christ, and trusting in divine love.

Even when all seems lost, God is always doing something new in our lives. Join us on the journey!

This retreat be offered on the Zoom platform. To register, contact Roger Pisani at (610) 525-0147 x.234 or email rpisani@omgcp parish.net with your name, phone number (in case of emergency) and email address. You may register for subsequent weeks even after the first week is finished.

CARE CALL UPDATE

Three weeks ago, I mentioned that we assembled a "Care Calls Team" to assist me in checking in with all OMGC parishioners. By the end of January, we will have reached approximately 1/3 of our parish families. We're calling to ask how parishioners are doing and if they need any prayers for anything the parish staff can help with at this time. Sometimes, a team member gets no answer and leaves a voicemail message, but they have often been blessed by the conversation they have had with parishioners - good for both persons.

While these times call for social distancing, the connections we are making by these calls are comforting reminders that Our Mother of Good Counsel is a parish family rooted in prayer, support, and fellowship. As your pastor, I look forward to the team continuing this program over the next few months. We welcome your feedback. Fr. Liam

NEW 2021 OMGC PRAYER PARTNERS

Staying connected is more important now than ever before, yet many remain isolated and lonely due to illness or technology limitations. If you are in this situation or would like a simple way to help alleviate it for others, consider joining us in a new endeavor.

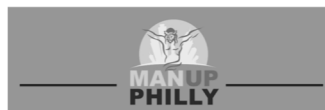

We are looking for parishioners interested in being partnered with other parishioners to be the first OMGC Prayer Partners group.

It is easy; you will sign up to be either a prayer leader or prayer receiver. We will pair you up and then send the leaders the supplies to run the prayer meeting over the phone or zoom four times this year. The leaders will receive four bible/Gospel readings with a short discussion sheet.

- * LEADERS - Your job will be to initiate the calls, run the prayers and have fun! You will run the prayers during these times: Lent/Easter, Summer, Fall, and Advent/Christmas time.
- * RECEIVERS – Participate and have fun!

We are limiting our 2021 Prayer Partner groups to 20-25. Please do not miss this fantastic opportunity to pray together, connect with others, get involved in our parish, and most of all, have fun.

To sign up, please contact Michelle or Roger in the office at 610-525-0147 or Email: omgc@omgcparrish.net.
Sign up deadline is February 28, 2021.

Tom Manion, chairman of the Travis Manion Foundation which supports military families in honor of his son, Travis, who paid the ultimate sacrifice in Afghanistan. Deacon Steve Javie, former NBA ref. will provide our reconciliation talk. Registration is on $10 online at manupphilly.com.

PRAYER TO OUR MOTHER OF GOOD COUNSEL

We turn to you, Our Mother of Good Counsel, as we seek to imitate your faith-filled life. May we be led by the same wisdom which God sent forth from heaven to guide you along unfamiliar paths and through challenging decisions.

Keep us united in mind and heart as we go forward in joyful hope toward the grace and freedom that St. Augustine recommends.

O Virgin Mother of Good Counsel hear our prayer as we look to you for guidance. Pray for us to our loving and merciful Father, to your Son, our Lord, Jesus the Christ, and to holy Spirit, giver of all wisdom, one God forever and ever. Amen.
