JESUS TEACHES HIS DISCIPLES TO BE VIGILANT

In this new liturgical year, the Gospel of Luke will be the primary Gospel proclaimed (Lectionary Cycle C). Today's Gospel is taken from the last chapter before the passion narrative in which Jesus is teaching in the Temple. We hear Jesus speak to his disciples about the need for vigilance and prayer as they wait for the coming of the Son of Man in glory. This passage marks the conclusion of a lengthy dialogue in which Jesus predicts the destruction of the Temple in Jerusalem, warns about the persecution and tribulations to follow, and identifies the signs that will signal the coming of the Son of Man in glory.

The community for whom Luke wrote his Gospel may have believed that they were already experiencing some of the events Jesus described. Most scholars believe that Luke's Gospel was written after the destruction of Jerusalem by the Romans in 70 A.D. At the time, many Christians interpreted this event as an indication that Jesus' second coming was near.

Though Jesus predicts a time of destruction and fear, Jesus indicates that others will be frightened; Jesus' disciples are not to fear, but are to stand tall. Yet Jesus does not promise deliverance from anxiety or tribulations. He encourages his disciples to pray for strength. The early Christian communities did not find consolation in the promise of a utopia, nor should we. Instead, we find in our Christian faith the means by which we witness to God's unfailing love for us in all circumstances.

Jesus' predictions about the end times may sound dire, but in the next paragraph Luke tells us that people woke early to listen to Jesus' teaching in the Temple area. In his person and in his message, those who heard Jesus found strength and consolation. Like the first Christians, we may encounter events and circumstances that could lead us to despair. Through prayer, however, we find strength and consolation in Jesus' words and in his continuing presence with us to endure all things and to witness to the action of God in our world.

PASTOR'S NOTES

ADVENT

WHAT DOES THIS SEASON REALLY MEAN TO US?

On this the First Sunday of Advent, we acclaim in our opening prayer, “Grant your faithful, we pray, Almighty God, the resolve to run forth to meet your Christ with righteous deeds at his coming.” Many of us have heard these or similar words every year as we begin the Season of Advent. Do we actually allow ourselves to celebrate Advent, or is it just time set aside so we can get “things” ready for Christmas? In reality, we should be getting ourselves spiritually prepared for the commemoration of the Birth of Christ, the Mystery of the Incarnation.

We are already being inundated with commercials and newscasts about the need to get your shopping done early due to a lack of merchandise in our stores. We are already hearing that Santa Clause is concerned about being too close to children who are not yet vaccinated. We do not hear much about our preparedness to welcome Christ into our homes and hearts as we prepare for another liturgical year.

Our recovery from this Pandemic remains slow-moving and rightly so. We cannot take lightly what has happened and how easily it could happen again if we are not careful. The same could be said about the way we prepare for Christmas during the Advent Season.

If we just allow ourselves to sit back prepare for another secular Christmas without any time set aside for our spiritual growth, then we are going to find ourselves looking back on another Advent with the same results as in the past.

To offer the parish community some food for thought, we will be participating in a two-night series entitled --

Meet Your Crèche: A Spiritual Practice
With John Shea

These two sessions, along with a final Advent Evening of Prayer on December 16, can be done virtually at home or with other parishioners in our social hall on December 2 and 9, from 7:00 to 8:30 PM.

- Those who want to participate virtually, you must register in advance. To register virtually, send your name, preferred email address and phone number to sacreddoorwaysnj@gmail.com.
- Those attending in-person, we will take care of the registration as a group. Please email your name and phone number to omgc@omgcp parish.net to be added to the group.

Finding the time to prepare spiritually for Christmas requires planning, or it will get lost in the gift buying, decorating, and cookie making, which is only some of what needs to be done during Advent.

So, what will this Advent mean to you?
Fr. Joe
