NEW PARISHIONERS:

Our Mother of Good Counsel warmly welcomes new parishioners. We believe in the "Stewardship Program" committed to serving God through offering our gifts of time, talents, and treasure for the good of our parish and those in need. We ask you to register as soon as possible by completing a registration form available in the parish office during regular office hours or on our parish website. Parishioners moving should notify the parish office of any change in address or phone number.

SACRAMENT OF BAPTISM:

Parents are asked to register for Baptism at the parish office three months in advance and must participate in our Baptismal preparatory program.
Ordinarily, we celebrate Baptism during any weekend Mass on the second and fourth Sundays of the month.

SACRAMENT OF RECONCILIATION:

Saturday: 11:30 - 12:00 Noon or by appointment.

SACRAMENT OF MATRIMONY:

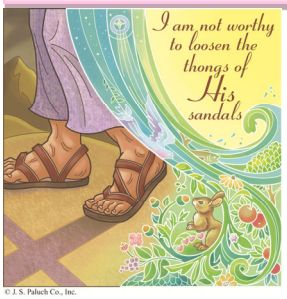
Couples desiring to be married at OMGC parish must contact the parish office at least six months or upon their formal engagement to set up a time and date for your wedding celebration.

SACRAMENT OF ANOINTING OF THE SICK:

If you would like to receive the Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick, please contact the parish office to schedule a time.

COMMUNION/HOME VISITS:

If you are ill or unable to come to Mass for any period of time, please call the Parish Office (610-525-0147) and we will be happy to visit you and bring Communion to you.



JOHN THE BAPTIST TEACHES THE PATH OF REPENTANCE AND ANNOUCES CHRIST.

This Sunday's Gospel continues last week's focus on John the Baptist and his role in preparing the way for Christ. Recall that last week's reading described John's appearance in the desert and established his connection with the prophetic tradition of Israel. If we were to read Luke's Gospel continuously, we would learn about John the Baptist challenging the crowds who came to him and calling upon them to show evidence of their repentance. John tells his listeners that they cannot rely on their lineage as Israelites because children of Abraham can be raised up from stones. Repentance, rather, must be observable in one's actions. Here, Luke is continuing to set up two important themes of his Gospel message: the Christian faith is expressed in one's actions, and the call to salvation is extended to everyone, Jews and Gentiles.

In today's Gospel reading, the crowds ask John the Baptist for specifics. What evidence of repentance is required? John replies by naming concrete actions: crowds should share their food and cloaks; tax collectors should be just; soldiers should act fairly. The concern for justice is a hallmark of Luke's Gospel.

When the crowd begins to wonder if John the Baptist might be the Messiah, John interprets his baptism and makes it clear that his ministry is in preparation for the Messiah. John the Baptist knows his place and role in God's plan of salvation. By encouraging the crowd to act similarly in accordance with their stations in life, John's teaching suggests that each person has a role to play in God's salvation. It is the great mystery of our salvation that God permits and even asks for human cooperation in his divine plans.

The third Sunday of Advent is also called Gaudete Sunday. Gaudete is a Latin word that means “rejoice.” This name is taken from the entrance antiphon for Sunday's Mass, which is also echoed in today's second reading from the Paul's letter to the Philippians. Some people mark this Sunday by lighting a pink candle instead of a purple one on their Advent wreath. It is a reminder that the Advent season is a season of joy because our salvation is already at hand.

PRAY FOR SICK

We are asked to remember in our prayers:

Beau Campbell, Fran O’Brien, Griffin Rademaker, William O’Donnell, William Viola, Nam Baek, Jo-Ann Stigliano, Steve McCabe, Michael Loro, Rusty Tinsley, Linn Bramble, Lori Lesutis, Wesley Jones, Joanne Bramley, Michael Fedorak, Bill Denny, Leilani Scimeca, Noah Collins, Rick Shumaker, Jane Bartol, Demetri Gaitanopoulos, Sue and Dennis Atwell, The Umana Family, Terry Voran, Kimberley Turner, Matthew Jordan, Jackie & Russ Rickert, Joe Callan, Giacomo Ballestrino, Emmanuel Thomas, Sunny Russo, Joe Smith, Carolyn Vonner-Hill, Tom Hogan, Johnny Descano, James Baltich, Fr. Jim Martinez, and all those suffering from Covid-19 and all who care for those who are sick.

Please call the Parish Office at 610-525-0147 if you would like to request yourself or a family member be put on our prayer list for the next 4 weeks. You can also make a request that the prayers of the community be renewed for another 4-week period as often as needed or desired.

PASTOR'S NOTES

MAKE STRAIGHT THE WAY OF THE LORD

On Tuesday, December 14, at 7:00 PM, the parish community will celebrate our Advent Reconciliation Service. This is an opportunity for the community to gather in prayer as we seek God's forgiveness both individually through sacramental confession and communally, praying for one another as we continue to make straight the path of the Lord in our lives and in our world.

There have been several things that have been disrupted due to the pandemic. One of them was the regularity for those who take advantage of the Sacrament of Penance. It may well be time for you to consider taking the opportunity to celebrate Penance before you celebrate the solemnity of Christmas. There are those among us who have not been to confession for several years. This may be the opportune moment to find your way back to God and reconcile with him and yourself, the wholeness that comes through the grace of the Sacrament. Christ came to reconcile the world to himself as an act of unconditional love. His mercy has been shared with us over and over. We, in turn, find our way back to God by seeking God's forgiveness formally through the Sacrament. It is our chance to re-do what might need to be undone in our lives as we recognize the need for transformation and conversion during the Advent season.

Preparing for Christmas is not just about getting the material things we need to do ready for family and friends, but it is also about getting ourselves spiritually ready to welcome God in our hearts and homes as we commemorate his birth and the great Mystery of the Incarnation. Praying together at our Advent Penance service is a sign of support for one another, as we are all sinners and are in need of God's mercy over and over as we attempt to make straight the way of the Lord.

Please join us on Tuesday evening for this service as we all humbly place ourselves before our loving God in search of his love and forgiveness, an Advent gift that we all need.

Father Joe

OMGC BULLETIN BOARD

YOUR SMALL SACRIFICE, THEIR GREAT APPRECIATION

For over a dozen years, OMGC parishioners have generously responded to the request of local religious women for gifts for their clients, or financial help for their programs. They are requesting, once again, gift cards or monetary gifts of $5 or $10, or more, for presents of financial help to those they serve. ACME gift cards are welcome for all. The three Immaculate Heart Sisters and the replacement for retired Trinitarian, Sr. Bernadine Schmalhofer, now 99, who was our original beneficiary, are:

1) Collette Wade, of St. Francis/St. Joseph's/St. Vincent Homes, Bensalem. Please use the institution's name on checks. Collette is House Manager of the six group homes on the campus, five for boys, one for girls, and one for unaccompanied refugee minors. There are also apartments for those aging out at 18. The Homes request gift cards from McDonald's, Burger King, Five Below, Wawa, Walmart, or cash donations. Your gifts will, in part be used to take the adolescent boys and girls out for treats after communal Masses.
2) Sr. Bernadette Mary Heister, IHM, heads the IHM Family Literacy Center in Coatesville. She prefers Acme or Giant, other food-store gift cards, and cash donations. She provides this financial assistance to her entirely Latina clients, such as mothers and children from Mexico, Ecuador, and other Latin American countries.
3) Sr. Kathryn Benham, IHM, manages IHM Literacy Center West at St. Francis de Sales Parish in Southwest Philadelphia. Her clients are mostly adult refugees seeking asylum and immigrants from West Africa, Ethiopia, Eritrea, Haiti, Mexico, and Venezuela. They take one of the three literacy and citizenship courses offered daily. Sr. Kathryn informs us that her many widows prefer to shop at Walmart, Target, Shop-Rite, and Acme. However, cash donations are extremely helpful for housing problems.

4) Sr. Margaret Paul Longshore, IHM, heads the IHM Center for Literacy at St. Bernard Parish in Northeast Philadelphia. Her hundreds of immigrant clients are from over 20 countries. Sr. Margaret prefers to provide them with Acme, Shop-Rite, and Walmart gift cards, and would use financial donations to help buy food for them. There is one Afghan client so far.

The donations of gift cards, checks made out to the individual Sister or institution, or cash, will be delivered by Joe Betz, God willing, on Wednesday, December 22rd, or the next day.

To donate:

1. Please place your gift in the collection basket at Mass in an envelope with SISTERS' CHRISTMAS GIFTS written on it, or
2. Or give it to Michelle in the parish office, or
3. Or phone or email Joe Betz (610-525-4499) (joseph.betz@villanova.edu) to come to you to pick it up.

God bless you for caring. Providing your name and address will make their thank-you notes possible. Gifts received late will be mailed to them.

RED CROSS BLOODMOBILE

Tuesday, December 14, 2021

2-7 pm - OMGC GYM

Please consider donating a pint of blood when the Red Cross Bloodmobile comes to OMGC's gym, on Tuesday, December 14th from 2:00 PM to 7:00 PM. Please invite a friend to come with you to donate as well. The number of willing donors decreases as the busy Christmas week approaches, yet the need for blood increases because more travel means more accidents. Thank you!
