Second Week of Advent – Prepare the Way of the Lord!

During this second week of Advent, our readings continue to excite us with the 2nd coming of Christ. John the Baptist's message reminds us to repent and prepare the way of the Lord. God's second coming will transform all the world, the people and the wild beasts, into goodness, justice, harmony, and peace. Can you imagine that kind of world? Or, better yet, can you imagine this transformation within yourself? It is not a simple event, nor can we be flippant with the anticipation. We must prepare our souls and the world around us for the Holy Spirit. Through perseverance (hope), repentance (renewal), and feeding ourselves with scripture, prayer and the Eucharist (recognizing God), we will witness God's coming within us, and all around us.

SECOND SUNDAY
of Advent

Sacraments of Healing

Advent Evening of Reconciliation

Stressed by the season? Come make ready the way and be renewed!

The Advent Evening of Individual Reconciliation is a time to examine ourselves, to open our hearts and lift the burden of sin which are those things keeping us from God. Allow God's grace to envelope you, as you participate in this sacrament. As the angel told Mary: "Do not be afraid. You have found favor with God."

Please come to celebrate the Sacrament of Reconciliation on Tuesday December 9th at 6:00 PM. There will be several priests in attendance.

Please Help a Local Student!

Seth Bertoni, a local high school student, is studying World Religions. As part of his classwork he doing a research project on your experience of Catholicism. He has asked for our help in this endeavor! Please follow the QR code to complete his short online survey.

Responses are needed by December 10th!! Thank you!

Feast of the Immaculate Conception – December 8th

Every December 8th, the Catholic Church honors the conception of the Blessed Virgin Mary in the womb of her mother, Saint Anne. Mary was conceived naturally but God kept her soul immaculate, i.e. free from original sin. This feast day takes place exactly nine months prior to the celebration of Mary's nativity (on September 8th). Immaculate Conception is sometimes confused with the conception of Jesus Christ in Mary's womb, while it refers to Mary herself.

Join us in this holy day of obligation honoring Mary's important role in salvation Monday December 8th. Mass times are: 8:30 AM & 6:30 PM.

Advent Reflection Resources

With a tighter budget this year, we are unable to offer Advent reflection booklets for the parish community. Instead, the parish is posting links to several resources (both physical booklets and online materials) for daily prayer and reflection during the Advent season.

Please go to <https://rocklincatholic.org/advent-resources> or use the QR Code to access the Advent reflection resources.

REMINDER!

The Sacrament of Reconciliation time has changed! Beginning Saturday, November 29th, the First Weekend of Advent, our Sacrament of Reconciliation time on Saturdays is now 4:00 PM – 4:45 PM.

FAMILY PRAYER

A Prayer for the Immaculate Conception

On December 8th, the Church celebrates the Solemnity of the Immaculate Conception, during which we recall that Mary was conceived without original sin. Pray this prayer to help you prepare for this Holy Day of Obligation.

O most Holy Virgin, immaculate in body and spirit, look kindly on us as we ask for your powerful intercession.

O most Holy Mother, receive our prayers as we present them to God.
[State your intentions here.]

O Mary, Mother of Jesus and our Mother, you intercede for us with your Son.

O Mary conceived without sin, pray for us who have recourse to thee. Amen.

Please continue to pray for Nancy during her recovery.

Dance and Pray

Join us Monday, December 15th
at 6:30 PM in Classroom #1
(close to the Faith Formation Office).

Remember to wear comfortable clothes, shoes/sneakers, and bring water. We'll move, dance, and pray for about an hour. We found out that putting one of those low-cut no-show socks on the bottom of our shoes/sneakers makes it easier to dance on carpet. Remember to bring a pair.

Feel free to invite a friend to Dance & Pray with us!

OCIA Sponsors Needed

The Holy Spirit is indeed at work here at SS. Peter & Paul parish with a growing number of adult Candidates and Catechumens in the OCIA seeking the Sacraments of Initiation.

As such, we are in need of Confirmed Catholic adults, who are active in their faith, to accompany our participants on their journey to the Sacraments. What is the role of an OCIA sponsor?

- ♦ Companion: accompanying a person who is on a journey toward a deeper relationship with our loving God in Jesus Christ through the Holy Spirit.
- ♦ Guide: not just walking alongside the person, but also guiding, lending a hand, and helping to notice important things along the way.
- ♦ Support: encouraging the person when he/she gets discouraged or confused.
- ♦ Representative of our SS. Peter & Paul Catholic Community: connecting the person to our community of faith both at mass and in ministry.
- ♦ Witness: beholding the work of the Holy Spirit in the person's journey.

Our OCIA Candidates and Catechumens are a gift to our community and renew our own faith. As such, being a sponsor is incredibly rewarding and provides an opportunity to share and grow in your own faith along the way.

If you are interested and would like more information, please contact Katie Maynard, Coordinator of Christian Initiation at (916) 624-5827 x214 or email katie.maynard@rocklincatholic.org

Book Club Selection

Our parish book club has selected When the Jessamine Grows by Donna Everhart. This book is an evocative, morally complex novel set in rural 19th century North Carolina, as one woman fights to keep her family united, her farm running, and her convictions whole during the most devastating and divisive period in American history.

Join us on Tuesday, January 20th at 4:00 PM in the Dillon Center for our discussion!

New Divorce Care series begins in January

Our Divorce Care facilitators have graciously agreed to provide another 13-week session beginning January 22nd. This series can provide much needed healing during a difficult time. Open to all, so please share this information with family and friends.

Christian Initiation – Inquiry into Catholicism

Are you thinking of becoming Catholic?

Conversion is a gradual process as well as a community and personal journey of faith that leads to a transformation of mind and spirit.

This Christmas, Give a Gift to the World

Explore ways to move away from a culture of consumerism. Consider giving experiences instead of material things, such as tickets to movies, theater shows, zoo or museum tours. Take a class or workshop together. Go on an adventure together, take a hike, and explore nature.

Americans throw away 25% more trash from Thanksgiving to Christmas than the rest of the year. Advent, the time between Thanksgiving and Christmas, is the time we prepare for the joy of God entering the world as a baby. It is a beautiful reminder to us that God loved the world enough to be part of the created world with us! (zerowastechurch.org)

This year let's try to see if we can create less waste with our gift giving. Explore ways to give gifts with less wrapping. Reuse paper and ribbons, use reusable gift bags, or decorative cloths to wrap your gifts.

BREAKING OPEN THE WORD

Second Sunday of Advent

First Reading—Isaiah 11:1-10

The prophet Isaiah lived 750 years before Christ. Despite the political unrest of that period, he looks forward to a kingdom so wonderful that even nature is at peace. This perfect world would be ruled by a descendent of King David. (As you listen to this reading, it helps to know that "Jesse" is the name of David's father.)

Second Reading—Romans 15:4-9

In the early days of the Church, some of the Jewish people who became Christians continued to practice their Jewish traditions. Many of them were members of the Church in Rome, along with others who were Gentiles. They sometimes found it hard to get along. As Paul nears the end of his letter to them, he encourages them to live in harmony by drawing upon the Scriptures they had in common – what we have called the "Old Testament."

Gospel Reading—Matthew 3:1-12

In today's gospel, John the Baptist is confrontational and uncompromising. He demands repentance—urgently! And people flocked to him. What did they find so attractive about John and his message?

One thing that could have had appeal was the desert locale where John was baptizing. There is a mysterious beauty to the desert where inner noise can be calmed and the senses are heightened, making one better able to discern priorities in the stark presence of the Holy One.

Another attractive characteristic of John was his wholehearted commitment to God's reign and the Coming One who would usher it in. When a person lives so completely and authentically what he or she proclaims, that witness is very compelling.

There are serious and immediate consequences if the call to repentance is not heeded. John declares that any tree that does not produce fruit is cut down at the root and thrown into the fire. Such strong language is meant to get our attention. Today's readings invite us to find a desert spot where we can sink our roots deeply in contemplative oneness with the One who comes, extend our branches in welcome to those with whom we have been at odds, and let the Spirit pollinate us for an abundant harvest of fruitful goodness.
