Third Week of Advent – “Make your hearts firm!”

THIRD SUNDAY
Advent

This third week of Advent we celebrate Gaudete Sunday. “Gaudete” meaning rejoice! Isaiah continues the idea of transformation as he reminds us that God’s coming transforms EVERYTHING into the best version of itself. The weak will be strong, the deaf will hear, the lame will leap like a stag! The Lord’s presence is life-giving, healing, transformative. And our second reading reminds us to be patient and make our hearts firm. For the Lord’s coming will be glorious unto itself. Christmas is a celebration of Christ’s incarnation, which is evidence of God’s unconditional love for us. As we await and prepare ourselves this Advent, let us rejoice in the salvation of Jesus’s coming, and the opportunity to join Him in heaven, where the least in the kingdom of heaven is greater than the greatest here on earth.

GENERATIONS OF FAITH

OCIA Sponsors Needed

The Holy Spirit is indeed at work here at SS. Peter & Paul parish with a growing number of adult Candidates and Catechumens in the OCIA seeking the Sacraments of Initiation.

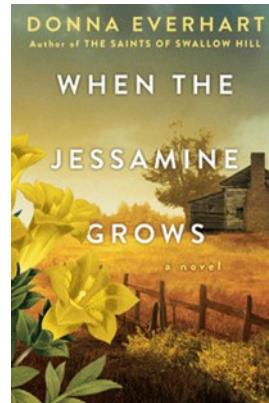

As such, we are in need of Confirmed Catholic adults, who are active in their faith, to accompany our participants on their journey to the Sacraments. What is the role of an OCIA sponsor?

- ◊ Companion: accompanying a person who is on a journey toward a deeper relationship with our loving God in Jesus Christ through the Holy Spirit.
- ◊ Guide: not just walking alongside the person, but also guiding, lending a hand, and helping to notice important things along the way.
- ◊ Support: encouraging the person when he/she gets discouraged or confused.
- ◊ Representative of our SS. Peter & Paul Catholic Community: connecting the person to our community of faith both at mass and in ministry.
- ◊ Witness: beholding the work of the Holy Spirit in the person's journey.

Our OCIA Candidates and Catechumens are a gift to our community and renew our own faith. As such, being a sponsor is incredibly rewarding and provides an opportunity to share and grow in your own faith along the way.

If you are interested and would like more information, please contact Katie Maynard, Coordinator of Christian Initiation at (916) 624-5827 x214 or email katie.maynard@rocklincatholic.org

Book Club Selection

Our parish book club has selected When the Jessamine Grows by Donna Everhart. This book is an evocative, morally complex novel set in rural 19th century North Carolina, as one woman fights to keep her family united, her farm running, and her convictions whole during the most devastating and divisive period in American history.

Join us on Tuesday, January 20th at 4:00 PM in the Dillon Center for our discussion!

New Divorce Care series begins in January

Our Divorce Care facilitators have graciously agreed to provide another 13-week session beginning January 22nd. This series can provide much needed healing during a difficult time. Open to all, so please share this information with family and friends.

To register, visit www.rocklincatholic.org/divorcecare

Christian Initiation for Adults is the communal process through which non-baptized men and women become members of the Catholic Church.

It is also suitable for those baptized in different faith traditions who are interested in becoming Catholic, or for those who were baptized Catholic but have yet to receive the sacraments of Eucharist and Confirmation.

For more information about the process, please call Katie Maynard at 916-624-5827 ext. 214 or katie.maynard@rocklincatholic.org

Dance and Pray

Join us Monday, December 15th at 6:30 PM in Classroom #1 (close to the Faith Formation Office).

Remember to wear comfortable clothes, shoes/sneakers, and bring water. We'll move, dance, and pray for about an hour. We found out that putting one of those low-cut no-show socks on the bottom of our shoes/sneakers makes it easier to dance on carpet. Remember to bring a pair.

Feel free to invite a friend to Dance & Pray with us! Email Lucia at luciadanceandpray@gmail.com for more information.

2026 Church Calendars Available

This Christmas, Give a Gift to the World

Explore ways to move away from a culture of consumerism. Consider giving experiences instead of material things, such as tickets to movies, theater shows, zoo or museum tours. Take a class or workshop together. Go on an adventure together, take a hike, and explore nature.

Americans throw away 25% more trash from Thanksgiving to Christmas than the rest of the year. Advent, the time between Thanksgiving and Christmas, is the time we prepare for the joy of God entering the world as a baby. It is a beautiful reminder to us that God loved the world enough to be part of the created world with us! (zerowastechurch.org)

This year let's try to see if we can create less waste with our gift giving. Explore ways to give gifts with less wrapping. Reuse paper and ribbons, use reusable gift bags, or decorative cloths to wrap your gifts.

BREAKING OPEN THE WORD

Third Sunday of Advent

First Reading—Isaiah 35:1-6,10

TV coverage of events in the Middle East has familiarized us with the empty expanse of desert described in today's reading. Therefore, we can appreciate the unbelievable transformation which Isaiah promises. The prophet says that the desert will become a lush garden, as God's chosen people return singing and dancing from their 70-year exile in Babylon.

Second Reading—James 5:7-10

The letter of James was written approximately 50 years after the death and resurrection of Jesus. It was addressed to a group of Christians who were disappointed that Jesus had not yet returned in glory. Using an agricultural image, the author encourages them to keep their hope alive as they face the day-to-day trials of life.

Gospel Reading—Matthew 11:2-11

There comes a time in most everyone's life when you wonder whether all the hard work and all the commitments are worth anything. Are you really making any difference in the world? Have you done with your life what you had hoped? That seems to be John the Baptist's frame of mind in today's gospel. He is in prison and his days are numbered. He had taken up a radical prophetic lifestyle, fasting, praying, calling people to repentance, preparing the way, and watching for the Coming One. Was he right?

John sends his disciples to ask Jesus, who points to all the signs that John's preaching was right on target. Through Jesus' ministry, to which John pointed, people who could not previously do so are now seeing, walking, and hearing. Many are healed and restored to life. Poor people are heartened with good news. All the soil so carefully tilled and tended by John is bearing the long-awaited fruit. Jesus says to the crowds that John was "more than a prophet," and that there has been "none greater than John the Baptist." Presumably, this assurance is also conveyed to John, giving him heart to be able to quell the doubts and to endure patiently to the end.

God of our rejoicing, prepare the way in our hearts for the coming of your son Jesus. Help us to proclaim the good news of his love and healing to the poor in our midst. Amen.
