FAMILY CONNECTION

Think of the last time you witnessed an act of selfless love in your family. Parents and caregivers of all kinds are called upon to act selflessly every day. Family life calls us to share selfless love with one another.

God is the model for us of selfless love. There was no need for God to create our planet or the creatures that inhabit it; it was an act of selfless love. There was also no need for God to send his only Son to save us. That too was an act of selfless love.

As we draw closer to God and the mystery of the Trinity, we learn about God's love. God has lavished us with love in the persons of the Son and the Spirit, who in turn nurture in us the desire to do the same. When we open ourselves to be filled with an awareness of the divine life within us, we participate in the endless spiral of love that leads to eternal life. Whenever we share selfless love in the family, we are sharing in the life of the Trinity.

Why Celebrate Juneteenth?

A Juneteenth Reflection by Fr. Matthew Hawkins

While not a religious holiday, Juneteenth aligns with the core values and teachings of the Catholic Church, making it an opportunity for Catholics to celebrate the resilience, strong families, and community cohesion that have emerged from this painful past and are needed more than ever today. The Catholic faith emphasizes the importance of tradition in preserving and transmitting values across generations. Juneteenth, as a celebration of Emancipation, is a testament to the resilience of African Americans who, despite the hardships of slavery and segregation, managed to preserve our cultural heritage, values, and family bonds. This resilience aligns with the Catholic appreciation for the power of tradition, a foundation for maintaining a strong sense of identity and purpose in the face of adversity.

Father's Day Prayer

Heavenly Father, You entrusted Jesus into the care of Joseph, a faithful earthly father. Today, we thank You for all fathers and father figures who guide, protect, and love with strength and humility.

We give thanks for fathers who strive to balance work, family, and faith with grace.

We honor those who, without a model to follow, have become wise and caring fathers.

We pray for those who were not always present but continue to offer love and support to their children.

We lift up fathers who have been hurt by their children and those who remain despite family struggles.

We thank You for adoptive fathers and stepfathers who have chosen love and built families.

We remember fathers who have lost a child, may their hearts be comforted.

We bless men who have no children, but who mentor and care for the next generation with fatherly love.

We pray for expectant fathers—may they embrace their calling with joy.

And we remember all fathers who have died, whose love still shapes our lives.

Lord, grant all fathers strength, wisdom, patience, and peace. May they always know Your guiding presence. Amen.

The Blessed Trinity

Today we celebrate the feast day of the Blessed Trinity. The word Trinity is a title for God that tells us that He is three Persons in one God.

Before Jesus came, the people didn't know that God was a Trinity. The Israelites knew that there was only one God, but they didn't know very much about Him. Jesus showed the people that there were three Persons in God when He taught them about Himself and the Father and the Holy Spirit.

The three Persons in the Blessed Trinity are all equal but different. We cannot understand this, but we believe it because Jesus taught it. It is one of the Mysteries of our Faith.

What does the Holy Trinity do for us? We know that God the Father made everything and we are intended to go back to Him. The Holy Spirit guides us towards Him, and Jesus is the way.

Every time you make the Sign of the Cross or say the "Glory Be" you are praying to the Blessed Trinity.

Answer to Word-Find: Give thanks to God
