Mission Statement

The people of SS. Peter & Paul Parish are called to create and sustain a community of faith in Jesus Christ. We celebrate the life of faith through the Eucharist. As we break bread together, we are inspired to care for others and are challenged to grow in faith through prayer, study, and social interaction

Vision Statement

All parishioners recognize the challenge of the Gospel and the Eucharist as evidenced by participating in various ministries, inviting and welcoming others, caring for and serving those in need, and promoting peace and justice.

✠ Liturgy 101 ✠

Behold the Lamb of God!

John did not fully understand who Jesus was—that He was the Messiah, the Lamb of God who takes away the sin of the world. His mission was to prepare the way for the Messiah. He embraced that mission and fulfilled it by preaching and offering a baptism of repentance to those who believed. Imagine his surprise and delight at that moment when he saw the Holy Spirit descend Jesus.

John's experience offers us an invitation to remain vigilant as we await Jesus' ongoing coming among us.

Jesus continues to walk among us today through His Body, the Church. Like John, we must be on the lookout, and when we see Him, we must cry out in faith, "Behold the Lamb of God!"

Staff Retreat

All parish offices will be closed, and staff will not be available on Wednesday, January 21st due to our Parish Staff Retreat. The Church and Chapel will also be locked after Morning Mass on that day.

Please keep our SS. Peter & Paul staff and clergy in your prayers during this day of retreat.

MY WORD OF THE YEAR

Book Club Discussion THIS WEEK

Our parish book club has selected When the Jessamine Grows by Donna Everhart. This book is an evocative, morally complex novel set in rural 19th century North Carolina, as one woman fights to keep her family united, her farm running, and her convictions whole during the most devastating and divisive period in American history.

Join us on Tuesday, January 20th at 4:00 PM in the Dillon Center for our discussion!

New Divorce Care series begins in THIS WEEK!

Our Divorce Care facilitators have graciously agreed to provide another 13-week session beginning January 22nd. This series can provide much needed healing during a difficult time. Open to all, so please share this information with family and friends.

To register, visit www.rocklincatholic.org/divorcecare

Catholics Returning Home Begins Jan. 28

Have you been away from the church for years or decades? Or would a refresher course be helpful to you? You are invited to attend our next 4-week series which will be on Wednesday evenings beginning January 28th from 6:30-8:00 PM. (Class meets Jan. 28, Feb. 4, 11, and 25.) This has been a popular class over the years and all questions are welcomed.

Don't like to drive at night? Contact Darcy at darcy.wharton@rocklincatholic.org about a daytime option.

Visit www.rocklincatholic.org/catholics-returning-home to register.

John the Baptist: Was He the Messiah?

Everybody thought that John the Baptist was a great preacher and prophet. Some people thought that he might even be the Messiah who would save their people. But John knew that was not his job. When Jesus came to him at the river to be baptized, John pointed at Him and told the people, "Behold, the Lamb of God!" He told the people that he was not the great one; Jesus was.

Saint John the Baptist is an example to all of us. If we are really good then our lives will show other people the way to Jesus.

John the Baptist taught the people by telling them to repent of their sins and be baptized. God wants some people to teach about Him by teaching and preaching to the people. But for most of us, the best way to teach others about God is by living a good life and loving God. If you really do your best to love God then your life will be like St. John the Baptist's and point the way to Jesus.

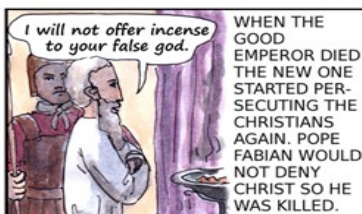

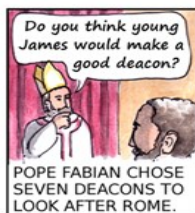

What is something that you can do today to lead someone to Jesus?

Answer to puzzle on front: I have seen and testified that He is the Son of God. Answer to Psalm 40 Word-Find: O Lord I come to do Your will.

BREAKING OPEN THE WORD

Second Sunday in Ordinary Time

First Reading—Isaiah 49:3, 5-6

The book of Isaiah in four different places speaks of a mysterious servant of God. This servant is sent to do great and marvelous things that touch the entire world. Christians have traditionally thought of Jesus as the fulfillment of these passages.

Second Reading—1 Corinthians 1:1-3

For the next several Sundays our second reading will be taken from the first letter of Paul to the Corinthians. Today's reading presents the opening words of that letter and is another example of the salutation used in classical letter writing—Paul identifies himself, acknowledges the community to whom he is writing, and extends warm personal greetings.

Gospel Reading—John 1:29-34

In today's gospel, as we move into Ordinary Time, John the Baptist sets the stage for the first disciples to recognize and follow Jesus. His proclamation of Jesus as Lamb of God has caused much debate among scholars. What did he mean by calling Jesus a lamb?

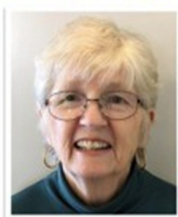

Most likely it is the symbolism of the Passover lamb that is intended in this Gospel of John. Just as in the exodus, the lamb's blood protects the people as they begin their arduous journey toward new life. At the death of Jesus, the evangelist John brings this symbolism to the fore again, by interpreting the decision not to break Jesus' legs, as they did to the other two crucified with him, as a fulfillment of the Scriptures that refer to the Passover lamb: "Not a bone of it will be broken." As the new Passover lamb, Jesus protects his disciples and opens the way for the new liberation of his people.

For John, it is not as an expiatory sacrificial lamb that Jesus takes away the sin of the world, but as one who embodies a way of life that frees people from all sinfulness that holds them bound. He shares with his disciples the power to live this manner of life when he appears to them after the resurrection, breathing the Spirit upon them and commissioning them: "Whose sins you forgive are forgiven them." Just as John predicts in today's gospel, Jesus bathes his followers with the Holy Spirit, enabling us to live as he did, forgiving everyone we can. Living in this way extends John's testimony to the Lamb of God in our day and continues Christ's action of taking away the sin of the whole world.
