February 1, 2026 — Fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time

✠ Liturgy 101 ✠

Ordinary Time

“Christmas Time and Easter Time highlight the central mysteries of the Paschal Mystery, namely, the incarnation, death on the cross, resurrection, the ascension of Jesus Christ, and the descent of the Holy Spirit at Pentecost. The Sundays and weeks of Ordinary Time, on the other hand, take us through the life of Christ. This is the time of conversion. This is living the life of Christ.

Ordinary Time is a time for growth and maturation, a time in which the mystery of Christ is called to penetrate ever more deeply into history until all things are finally caught up in Christ. The goal, toward which all of history is directed, is represented by the final Sunday in Ordinary Time, the Solemnity of Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe.” --USCCB

Super Bowl Sunday February 8, 2026

Bring your palms! It is time to prepare for Ash Wednesday on February 18th!

Book Club Selection

Our parish book club has selected Sanctuary: Creating a Space for Grace in Your Life by Terry Hershey as its next book. The challenges of daily life take a toll in energy, time, and effort. And the space and rest we need to recuperate is usually pushed to the back burner. This book not only defines what sanctuary is but why we need it, where we can find it, and how we can create it as space and habit.

Join us on Tuesday, March 10th at 4:00 PM in the Dillon Center for our discussion!

Christian Initiation – Inquiry into Catholicism

Are you thinking of becoming Catholic?

Conversion is a gradual process as well as a community and personal journey of faith that leads to a transformation of mind and spirit.

The first step in the process of Christian Initiation is the inquiry phase: a time to get your questions answered and think about whether or not this is for you. For more information about the process, please contact Katie Maynard at 916-624-5827 ext. 214 or katie.maynard@rocklincatholic.org

This Week on Formed

Did you know that we have an amazing source of Catholic Formation available in our parish, for free?

FORMED.org is basically a “Catholic Netflix” that provides videos and programming of all kinds...children’s programs, films, documentaries, lives of the saints. There is something for every member of your family to help you grow closer to Jesus.

SS. Peter & Paul has a FORMED subscription that allows you to access these resources for free. Please visit their website (www.formed.org) to sign up for an account and select SS. Peter & Paul as your parish.

And now...This Week on Formed!

The Presentation: The Presentation is already foreshadowing the Cross. The offering Mary makes at the Presentation in the Temple becomes manifested and reaches its fulfillment at Calvary.

<https://app.formed.org/app/videos/3279962/>

The Martyrs | Littlest Saints: When a young Christian girl is arrested and imprisoned in ancient Rome, she hears stories of martyrs like St. Catherine of Alexandria and St. Lawrence the Deacon—will she find the strength to make the ultimate sacrifice for her faith?

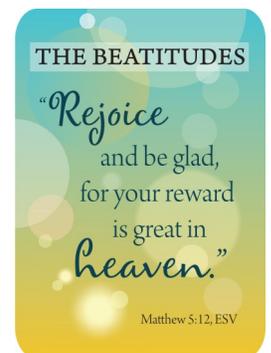

<https://app.formed.org/app/videos/3346368/>

Martyrs and Monastics: Dr. Ben Akers sits down with Dr. Elizabeth Klein, Professor of Theology at the Augustine Institute Graduate School, to discuss her Short Course: Martyrs and Monastics. Who are the early Church martyrs? What fueled their witness to the faith? How did monasticism develop? These questions and more are addressed in this show.

FAMILY CHALLENGE

Invite each family member to choose one beatitude from the Gospel, but don’t share it with anyone. Try to live that beatitude for a whole week. At the end of the week, try to guess which beatitude each person selected.

Enjoying donuts on Sunday morning is not just a glaze, it's a lifestyle!

Come for fellowship, coffee, and donuts after Sunday morning masses.

Volunteers are needed—especially at the 11:00 AM Mass. Contact Kris Cowen at kriscowen@hotmail.com for more information.

BREAKING OPEN THE WORD

Fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time

First Reading—Zephaniah 2:3; 3:12-13

Zephaniah was a prophet who lived 700 years before Christ. These were bad times for Israel, marked by idolatry and unfaithfulness to the law. The prophet calls the people to become part of a remnant, that is, a select few who would carry their holy tradition into future generations.

Second Reading—1 Corinthians 1:26-31

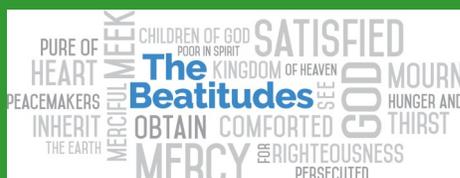

The majority of early Christians were of the lower class. When Paul left the Greek city of Corinth (a major seaport of the ancient world), he was succeeded by Apollos, who was apparently a more polished preacher. Paul grew concerned that the Corinthian Christians were becoming more captivated with oratory than with the heart of the Gospel message.

Gospel Reading—Matthew 5:1-12

In the Beatitudes, Jesus counsels attitudes and actions that will bring about the reign of God, already tasted in the present. To be poor in spirit is not to accept poverty as an inevitable state of life, but rather to find one's wealth in God, to trust in God's care for the poor, and to seek righteousness, which rectifies the unequal distribution of goods, so that all have enough to thrive.

To be meek is not to be shrinking violets who accept injustice but, rather, to know our proper place as children of God and to ensure that all are treated as full heirs to God's realm. To be peace builders, we are to engage in acts of mercy and forgiveness, which cleanse the heart and allow us to see God in the faces of our brothers and sisters. And like the grieving women who went to the tomb of Jesus, we do not mourn in despair when we suffer loss, but we allow our sorrow to be transformed by hope in the risen One.

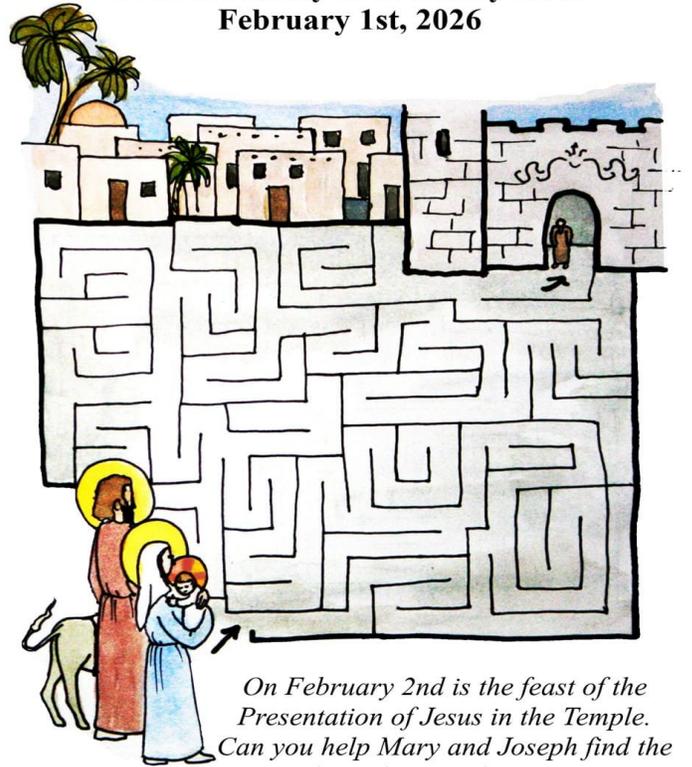

God of the humble and the poor, the foolish and the weak, the way of Jesus is strange and difficult. Mold our hearts to have the wisdom and the courage to follow it, and lead us finally to our blessed home in heaven. Amen.
