

Happy Summer, Rising 7th Graders!

6th Graders Entering 7th Grade Important Information SUMMER ASSIGNMENTS

The follow work is to be completed and brought with you on the first day of 7th Grade:

READING: Purchase & read these books:

- 1.) Sand Dollar Summer by Kimberly K. Jones
- 2.) Liar and Spy by Rebecca Stead

50
Make sure you have your name on your books. You should take sidebar notes (annotate) as you are reading them. Remember, highlight elements of the story/label them. These reading assignments will count as your first ELA Reading grades for the new school year. You will be tested on these reading assignments the first full week of school. Bring your annotated books to class with you the First Day of School.

MATHEMATICS: Complete Math Maintenance Worksheets # 5 to # 12. Make sure you SHOW ALL WORK neatly for each problem. Bring your worksheet packet with you to class on the First Day of School. You may use extra loose leaf to show all your work. Just label each problem accordingly. Make sure your name is on each page. This will count as your first Math score for the new school year.

HONORS MATH: Please follow Mrs. Schwendimann's schedule of work she gave you to do.

You must purchase the following books and bring them with you on the First Day of School:

- 1.) The Gate by Nancy Carabio Belanger
- 2.) Number the Stars by Lois Lowry
- 3.) Freak the Mighty by Rodman Philbrick
- 4.) Wonder by R.J. Palacio (if you gave me your book already, I have it safely stored for you for the summer. You will find it on your new desk in 7th grade upon return from Summer break). If you took your copy home, bring it back with you in September.
