LOOKING IN FROM THE OUTSIDE

Fr. David Poecking (Pastor)

Life is bigger inside the Church than outside it, but from the outside it can look as if being Catholic is a life of narrow rules for narrow-minded people. If you ask people why they're Catholic, you'll get a lot of different answers. Sometimes those answers are inadequate—not because they're wrong, but because they fail to convey the breadth and depth of Catholicity in a way that can be appreciated or embraced by others. For example:

- “I’m Catholic because my parents raised me that way.” That’s not wrong: God commanded us to honor our father and mother. But if your parents didn’t raise you that way, or if they only did a half-hearted job of raising you at all, does that mean you shouldn’t be Catholic, or that you’re not eligible? No! The commandment anticipates the kingdom of Heaven and the communion of the saints, Jesus’ eternal and spiritual family. Our earthly families and other institutions are baby steps toward eternal life. So Catholic families, non-Catholic families, and the broken or incomplete families all find their fulfillment in Christ and his Church.
- “I’m Catholic because of the Real Presence.” There’s deep truth there, but what does that mean to outsiders or folks on the margins of Church life? Do they know what “Real Presence” means to you? Do they hear you inviting them to receive the love of Jesus, or suggesting they aren’t as spiritual as you? How do you lean into the former, not the latter?

These are the kinds of problems that come up in Alpha, our beginning course for missionary discipleship. There we learn to talk about Jesus’ sacraments, faith, the Bible, and the Church, and to do so in a way in which we can be heard by others. Unfortunately, in response to the dramatic rise in community spread of COVID-19, the Alpha cohort scheduled to begin on February 1 has been postponed. You can join the waitlist though by visiting www.ArchangelGabrielParish.org/alpha or by calling the parish office.

Parish finances, continued: I promised ongoing explanations of parish finances. One way to explain would be to publish a budget and show week-by-week or month-by-month comparisons between the budget and actual numbers. But we haven’t had an effective budget for four years. First, there were the dramatic changes in staff and parish financing with the beginning of on mission, early in the 2018-19 fiscal year, from July 1 through June 30. We attempted to budget for the 2019-20 fiscal year, but then the pandemic made nonsense of our plans, and we abandoned budgeting for cash flow projections. Revenues and expenses have since become steadier, so we’ll be resuming the budgeting process this spring, for the 2022-23 fiscal year—but only tentatively, because we don’t have a “normal” year as our baseline. The most reliable data will for us be the most recent months, from which we will try to extrapolate for the year.

Race relations were a big concern for St. Paul and early Christians, who were torn between Jewish and Greek expressions of Christianity. In his letters, St. Paul sternly rebukes even St. Peter himself, when he gives in to the temptation to treat Christians of Jewish ethnicity differently from Christians of Greek ethnicity. Yet for many generations, Christians in the United States tolerated or even promoted racial discrimination. This week our country commemorates the Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., who six decades ago so robustly called out the failures of clergy and faithful in the U.S. on relations between black and white Americans. Please say a prayer of gratitude for the Civil Rights movement of the 1950s and 60s, or a prayer for racial reconciliation.

And while you’re at it, please say a prayer for the Most Rev. Mark Eckman, who last week was ordained a bishop and will be auxiliary to Bishop Zubik of Pittsburgh. It’s not an easy time to be a Catholic, nor a priest, and least of all a bishop.

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON

Let all the earth worship you and praise you, O God; may it sing in your praise of your name, O Most High.

PROCESSIONAL HYMN — PRAISE TO THE LORD

1. Praise to the Lord, the Al - might - y, the King of cre -
 2. Praise to the Lord, who o'er all things is won - drous - ly
 3. Praise to the Lord, who will pros - per your work and de -
 4. Praise to the Lord! O let all that is in me a - a - tion! O my soul, praise him, for reign - ing And, as on wings of an fend you; Sure - ly his good - ness and dore him! All that has life and breath, he is your health and sal - va - tion!

 ea - gle, up - lift - ing, sus - tain - ing.
 mer - cy shall dai - ly at - tend you.
 come now with prais - es be - fore him!

All you who hear, Now to his tem - ple draw near.
 Have you not seen All you have need - ed has been Pon - der a - new What the Al - might - y can do, Let the "A - men" Sound from his peo - ple a - gain!

Praise him in glad ad - o - ra - tion!
 Met by his gra - cious or - dain - ing?
 Who with his love does be - friend you.
 Glad - ly with praise we a - dore him!

FIRST READING — ISAIAH 62:1-5

For Zion's sake I will not be silent, for Jerusalem's sake I will not be quiet, until her vindication shines forth like the dawn and her victory like a burning torch. Nations shall behold your vindication, and all the kings your glory; you shall be called by a new name pronounced by the mouth of the LORD. You shall be a glorious crown in the hand of the LORD, a royal diadem held by your God. No more shall people call you "Forsaken," or your land "Desolate," but you shall be called "My Delight," and your land "Espoused." For the LORD delights in you and makes your land his spouse. As a young man marries a virgin, your Builder shall marry you; and as a bridegroom rejoices in his bride so shall your God rejoice in you.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM — PSALM 96

O sing a new song to the LORD;
sing to the LORD, all the earth.
O sing to the LORD; bless his name. R.

give the LORD glory and power;
give the LORD the glory of his name. R.

Proclaim his salvation day by day.
Tell among the nations his glory,
and his wonders among all the peoples. R.

Worship the LORD in holy splendor.
O tremble before him, all the earth.
Say to the nations, "The LORD is king."
He will judge the peoples in fairness. R.

Give the LORD, you families of peoples,

SECOND READING — 1 CORINTHIAN 12:4-11

Brothers and sisters: There are different kinds of spiritual gifts but the same Spirit; there are different forms of service but the same Lord; there are different workings but the same God who produces all of them in everyone. To each individual the manifestation of the Spirit is given for some benefit. To one is given through the Spirit the expression of wisdom; to another, the expression of knowledge according to the same Spirit; to another, faith by the same Spirit; to another, gifts of healing by the one Spirit; to another, mighty deeds; to another, prophecy; to another, discernment of spirits; to another, varieties of tongues; to another, interpretation of tongues. But one and the same Spirit produces all of these, distributing them individually to each person as he wishes.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Verse: God has called us through the Gospel to possess the glory of our Lord Jesus Christ.

GOSPEL — JOHN 2:1-11

There was a wedding at Cana in Galilee, and the mother of Jesus was there. Jesus and his disciples were also invited to the wedding. When the wine ran short, the mother of Jesus said to him, "They have no wine." And Jesus said to her, "Woman, how does your concern affect me? My hour has not yet come." His mother said to the servers, "Do whatever he tells you." Now there were six stone water jars there for Jewish ceremonial washings, each holding twenty to thirty gallons. Jesus told them, "Fill the jars with water." So they filled them to the brim. Then he told them, "Draw some out now and take it to the headwaiter." So they took it. And when the headwaiter tasted the water that had become wine, without knowing where it came from — although the servers who had drawn the water knew — the headwaiter called the bridegroom and said to him, "Everyone serves good wine first, and then when people have drunk freely, an inferior one; but you have kept the good wine until now." Jesus did this as the beginning of his signs at Cana in Galilee and so revealed his glory, and his disciples began to believe in him.

– Today's Second Collection – St. Anthony School Programs and DePaul School for Hearing and Speech

The second collection at all Sunday Masses this weekend benefits St. Anthony School Programs and DePaul School for Hearing and Speech. St. Anthony School Programs provides Catholic special education to children with Down Syndrome, Autism Spectrum Disorder and other Intellectual Disabilities. DePaul School for Hearing and Speech provides Listening and Spoken Language (LSL) education to children who are deaf or hard of hearing. Your donation will help St. Anthony School Programs and DePaul School for Hearing and Speech to further their goals of providing quality educational programs and services to their students. Your generosity will help these organizations improve the lives of their students and families.

THE WEEK AHEAD

LIFE TEEN SPRING KICKOFF

Sunday, January 16th

CONFIRMATION PARENT MEETING

Monday, January 24th 7:00-8:00pm

(online via ZOOM)

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED

Steve Swank (Director of Faith Formation)

Our parish is blessed to have an amazing team of catechists who support families in passing on the Faith. Although serving as a catechist is the main volunteer role in faith formation ministry, it is not the only one. Help is needed in a variety of other areas, including helping before, during, and after our Fam Cat sessions on Sunday mornings. This includes preparing the space/setting up equipment, assisting catechists with such tasks as making copies, monitoring the hallways, assisting students, and helping to clean up the cafeteria and rooms. If you ever thought about volunteering with faith formation, but feel the classroom environment is not right for you, then this is the opportunity to get involved.

As always, all adult volunteers must complete the safe environment requirements prior to volunteering. If you think you'd like to help or learn more, please reach out to me at sswank@archangelgabrielparish.org or 412-787-2140 extension 106.

RCIA MINISTRY

Patty Sampogna (RCIA Ministry Leader)

RCIA is currently underway, with our focus for the month of January on the sacramental life of the church. This month we will also celebrate the Rite of Welcoming for RCIA Candidates (baptized) and the Rite of Acceptance for RCIA Catechumens (unbaptized). These rites are important steps in our welcoming those in RCIA into the life of the parish as they continue their journeys to the Catholic Church. We will also resume gathering at the 10 AM Mass at Holy Trinity, where these rites will take place.

Please pray for those in RCIA, and for our adult Confirmation Candidates.

Interested in becoming Catholic?
