A MESSAGE FROM THE PASTOR

ABORTION LAW AND JURISPRUDENCE

Almost two weeks ago, we saw a leaked Supreme Court draft opinion suggesting that the landmark case, Roe v. Wade, might be overturned. Catholic thought on abortion begins with the 5th of the 10 Commandments: “You shall not kill” [Catechism of the Catholic Church, §§2270-2275]. The Church understands the 5th commandment in two senses:

1. as divine confirmation of human reason, according to which it is unethical directly and deliberately to kill a non-aggressive human being [CCC 2261];
2. as a gateway to life in Christ, who brings the moral law to its completion in his perfect love and obedience, and who invites his followers to a life of full integrity and interior peace, eschewing even angry words for others: “You have heard that it was said, ‘You shall not kill and whoever kills shall be liable to judgment,’ but I say to you that everyone who is angry with his brother shall be liable to judgment” [CCC 2262]

*Fr. Dave Poecking
Pastor*

Thus, from the beginning, Christians discerned an obligation not to kill children before or after birth. As centuries passed and we learned more biology of reproduction, we recognized that new and distinctive life occurs long before birth, as early as conception. So we speak of the sin of procured abortion, that is, the direct and deliberate killing of an unborn child. Procured abortions do not include indirect abortions, such as the removal of an ectopic pregnancy, or an abortion resulting from treatment necessary for other medical reasons. Nor do they include spontaneous miscarriages, which are all too common and often a source of much grief for parents.

Christians also abstain from formal cooperation—that is, approving or encouraging a procured abortion—and immediate material cooperation, such as paying for abortion or handing over the instruments or drugs used for abortion.

The Church also proposes to humanity that unborn children must be respected as persons from conception. Respect includes the protection of the law and ordinary medical and material care, which becomes the duty of every civil society and its government. Civil authorities must discern how best to implement this respect in law and policy. In my personal opinion, the best law would protect the unborn not primarily by punishing perpetrators, as we do with some forms of murder, but with the circumspection due for special offenses against the 5th commandment, e.g.: suicide attempts, euthanasia, or systemic threats to public health and safety, such as domestic violence or school bullying.

Most pro-life commentators welcome the overturning of Roe v. Wade as the removal of a major impediment to laws that might otherwise begin to address the proposals above. But by itself, overturning Roe does nothing to protect or care for unborn children or their mothers. If Roe is overturned, Catholics will need to turn much more attention to state legislatures in order to advance legislation that provides the necessary protection and care.

Every year, Archangel Gabriel Parish undertakes several “pro-life” campaigns. Some of these protest the withdrawal of legal protections from unborn persons. Others collect funds or other material support for mothers and children at risk. The parish could make this a higher priority as needed. For more information or to help, please contact the parish office.

- In last week’s pastor’s column, I promised I’d write about parish expenses—but then, the Supreme Court leak intervened. I’ll try to get to this next week!
- Thanks to the hard work of Roni Rojahn, Kathy Gennuso, and Cathy Jamiolkowski, we have a trial plan for adoration at each of our churches: Monday-Tuesday-Wednesday from 10:00 AM - 12:00 PM at St. Mary, and from 7:00 PM - 10:00 PM at Holy Trinity; and also Thursday-Friday-Saturday from 9:00 AM - 12:00 PM at St. Malachy. The trial schedule begins Monday, June 6.
- Julian Lennon, a famous musician and son of the even-more-famous John Lennon, will be visiting Holy Trinity Church at the invitation of a parishioner, Keith Dotrice, who is a colleague of his. At 6:15 PM on Saturday, May 21, Fr. Alan Morris will conduct a one-on-one interview with Mr. Lennon, after which our guest will perform a song or two. The public is welcome to attend, but will be subject to special security provisions. Free will offerings will be accepted.

PARISH NEWS & EVENTS

CONGRATULATIONS AND WELCOME TO JACE ERIC BOYLAN

Jace Eric Boylan was born on November 29, 2021. His name, Jace, is of Greek origin and means "healer" and is also of Hebrew and means "the Lord of salvation." His middle name Eric, is after his father and grandfather. His loving and proud parents are Eric and Kaitlyn Boylan. He also has a fun and loving older brother named Cole. Jace's honored baptismal sponsors are Ashlee Boylan (aunt) and Ken Merks (uncle). Jace brings us so much happiness, especially to his loving grandparents, Jayne Merks (late Raymond Merks), and Eric and Maxine Boylan. Thanks for welcoming him to the parish family on Sunday, April 24, 2022. He is a true blessing!

We'd love to share your sacrament photos in the bulletin!
Please send them to bulletin@archangelgabrielparish.org.

COMMUNITY NEWS & EVENTS

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS FAMILY OF THE MONTH

Jeremy and Sarah Ketter joined St. Malachy Church, now Archangel Gabriel Parish, when they moved to Kennedy Township in 2015, and it's where they have been raising their four children Madeline (9), Abigail (8), Jacob (6), and Sophia (six months).

Jeremy and Sarah exemplify the ability to find meaningful ways to help make our parish become a robust, rewarding, and holy experience, regardless of the many personal challenges and demands of raising four young children. This has included teaching their children the importance of giving back, such as when their three older children participated in the Living Stations this year and Maddie joined Jeremy to help clean up the St. Mary's parking lot. The family has also assisted in decorating the churches for various holidays.

Jeremy and Sarah have participated in Alpha since its first cohort. Alpha is a chance to ask questions and explore the Catholic faith in a fun, no-pressure environment, and Sarah now serves as an Alpha small group facilitator. They also find time to dedicate an hour each week to Eucharistic Adoration. Sarah taught at vacation bible school last summer and was an assistant in 2019. Jeremy is a cantor and member of the choir and volunteered at the St. Malachy fish fry before it was disrupted by the pandemic.

Regardless of the many personal demands and obstacles in their lives, Jeremy, Sarah, and their family have shown that there are ways to participate in building our Parish's success. And for that, the Archangel Gabriel Parish Knights of Columbus Council #11279 congratulate them as Family of the Month for April 2022.

HONORING A LOVED ONE

Hymnals

The parish is purchasing hymnals for all three churches. Each will have an inscription on the inside cover. Those who cover the cost of $25 per book are able to place a dedication of their choosing inside. For more information, go to ArchangelGabrielParish.org/hymnal.

Mass Intentions

Mass intentions for 2022 are now being accepted. You can select up to two Masses, one Sunday/Vigil Mass and one weekday Mass. The stipend is $10 per Mass. To check availability, please call the Parish Administrative Office at 412-787-2140 x100.

Tabernacle & Holy Family Niche

Spots are available for the Tabernacle Lamp (at all three churches) and the Holy Family Niche flowers (at St. Malachy Church). Please call the Parish Administrative Office at 412-787-2140 x100 for more information.

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON

Sing to the Lord a new song, alleluia; for the Lord has accomplished wondrous deeds, alleluia; he has revealed his justice in the sight of the Gentiles, alleluia, alleluia.

FIRST READING — ACTS 14: 21-27

After Paul and Barnabas had proclaimed the good news to that city and made a considerable number of disciples, they returned to Lystra and to Iconium and to Antioch. They strengthened the spirits of the disciples and exhorted them to persevere in the faith, saying, "It is necessary for us to undergo many hardships to enter the kingdom of God." They appointed elders for them in each church and, with prayer and fasting, commended them to the Lord in whom they had put their faith.

Then they traveled through Pisidia and reached Pamphylia. After proclaiming the word at Perga they went down to Attalia. From there they sailed to Antioch, where they had been commended to the grace of God for the work they had now accomplished. And when they arrived, they called the church together and reported what God had done with them and how he had opened the door of faith to the Gentiles.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM — PSALM 145: I WILL PRAISE YOUR NAME FOREVER, MY KING AND MY GOD.

The Lord is kind and full of compassion, slow to anger, abounding in mercy. How good is the Lord to all, compassionate to all his creatures. R.

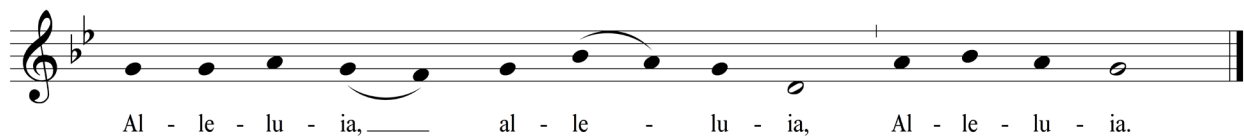

All your works shall thank you, O Lord, and all your faithful ones bless you. They shall speak of the glory of your reign, and declare your mighty deeds. R.

To make known your might to the children of men, and the glorious splendor of your reign. Your kingdom is an everlasting kingdom your rule endures for all generations. R.

SECOND READING — REVELATION 21: 1-5A

Then I, John, saw a new heaven and a new earth. The former heaven and the former earth had passed away, and the sea was no more. I also saw the holy city, a new Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband. I heard a loud voice from the throne saying, "Behold, God's dwelling is with the human race. He will dwell with them and they will be his people and God himself will always be with them as their God. He will wipe every tear from their eyes, and there shall be no more death or mourning, wailing or pain, for the old order has passed away." The One who sat on the throne said, "Behold, I make all things new."

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Verse: I give you a new commandment, says the Lord: love one another as I have loved you.

GOSPEL — JOHN 13: 31-33A, 34-35

When Judas had left them, Jesus said, "Now is the Son of Man glorified, and God is glorified in him. If God is glorified in him, God will also glorify him in himself, and God will glorify him at once. My children, I will be with you only a little while longer. I give you a new commandment: love one another. As I have loved you, so you also should love one another. This is how all will know that you are my disciples, if you have love for one another."

WORSHIP AID

THE NICENE CREED

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

ARCHANGEL GABRIEL PARISH PRAYER

O blessed Archangel Gabriel, you announced our salvation to the Virgin Mary. Pray for us that we may be courageous and compassionate, strong and faithful followers of her Son, Jesus. By your intercession, obtain for us the unification of our parish, and the fruitfulness of our mission to make disciples. Blessed be God in his angels and in his saints, through Christ, our Lord. Amen.

There is a second collection this weekend to benefit Catholic Relief Services and Aid for the Churches in Central and Eastern Europe, Latin America, and Africa. Funds received from this collection provide support for the poor and displaced refugees, pastoral care, catechetical and lay leadership programs, seminary formation, youth ministry, and church restoration. Your generosity is greatly appreciated.
