A MESSAGE FROM THE PASTOR

*Fr. Dave Poecking
Pastor*

HOLY TRINITY

Today's credal feast commemorates the revelation from Jesus that God is one Being and three divine Persons: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. It's not something that humans would have guessed at simply by using their own reasoning. And yet, it's a revelation at the center of our faith, requiring trust and acceptance from us for the sake of our salvation. God is communion, that is, shared life and love.

On a practical level, Jesus' revelation of God as three Persons also suggests that no one gets to Heaven alone. The process of our salvation, our spiritual healing, requires that we both receive and give help to others. In this way, we begin to practice the shared life and love which is the earthly beginning of our heavenly life.

Just as you would beware "Christians" who boast of their individual spiritual heroism, as if they did not receive saving grace through others' hands, so also beware "Christians" whose first concern is not how they can help others receive the same grace they first received.

At Archangel Gabriel Parish, one of our churches is dedicated to the Holy Trinity. We'll take the occasion to substitute the Litany of the Holy Trinity in place of the Universal Prayer.

More Thoughts for the Week

- The Reverend Mister Jacob Gruber was ordained to the transition diaconate last Saturday, June 4. I saw several of you at the ceremony; thanks for coming and praying for Deacon Jacob! He has been assigned again to Archangel Gabriel Parish for the summer and for his holidays through next June, when he is expected to be ordained to the priesthood. It is an honor for our parish to be entrusted with the pastoral formation of a new priest. Please give him your full attention this summer as he preaches frequently for us!
- Tim Davis, Ron Cross, Eric Cross and Karl Foerster have dismantled the pro tem stage they erected last year in the front windows of St. Malachy Church. The stage greatly augmented our parish ministry to those with a low tolerance for risk during the pandemic. I am grateful to them and to all who labored to make possible the outdoor adoration and the "parking lot" Mass. Thank you also to everyone who has committed themselves to adoring our Lord in Eucharistic Adoration, and thank you for your flexibility as we attempt a new trial schedule at all three of our church campuses.
- Property Expenses: Among our parish expenses, the single greatest is the maintenance of our property: property and liability insurance, the salaries and benefits of maintenance staff, contracted services (e.g. snow removal, landscaping), property taxes, maintenance and custodial supplies, and the occasional project (such as last year's roofing repairs at St. Mary Church, or the anticipated replacement of broken doors at Holy Trinity Church). Over the previous fiscal year, the combined expense for property maintenance was about $627,000, or 31% of our parish revenues. That's a high overhead cost for the parish to bear, even before we come around to administrative overhead. But as most of you know all too well, we are many years behind in caring for our properties as they ought to be cared for. Your gifts to the parish make it possible for me to do a better job of maintaining our parish properties without sacrificing the efforts so essential to our mission and growth.

PARISH NEWS & EVENTS

MEET THE MEMBERS OF THE PASTORAL COUNCIL

On Sunday, June 5, after an extensive and prayerful nomination and discernment process, the members of the Pastoral Council were commissioned at the 11:00 AM Mass at St. Mary, Help of Christians Church. These devoted parishioners have agreed to take on the task of advising the pastor, helping him discern God's will, and guiding his reflection on the "big picture" for Archangel Gabriel Parish. May God bless you in your ministry: Chris Blatt, Victoria Frauens, Andrea Kurtz, Greg Muha, Ashley Schlaegle, Linda Schroeder, Mary Stevens, and Marcy Stevenson.

Chris Blatt

Chris has been a parishioner for nearly 7 years. He graduated from Marshall University in Huntington, WV, and works in the medical sales industry.

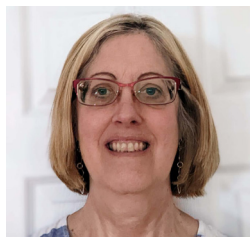

Greg Muha

Greg has been a parishioner since 1991. He has a bachelor's degree in journalism from Duquesne University and a master's degree in organizational leadership from Geneva College. He is the director of industry and partner engagement for the Association for Materials Protection and Performance (AMPP).

Andrea Kurtz

Andrea has been a parishioner since 2013. She has a bachelor's degree from the University of Pittsburgh and a master's degree from Kutztown University. She has worked as a care manager for persons with intellectual disabilities and in human service. She retired in 2020.

Ashley Schlaegle

Ashley is a lifelong member of the parish. She holds a bachelor's degree in Elementary and Kindergarten Education from Penn State University and is a first-grade teacher in the North Hills School District.

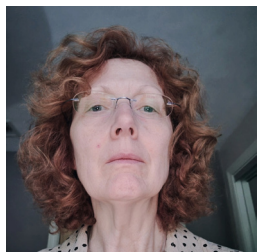

Linda Schroeder

Linda has been a parishioner for about three years. She has a master's degree in Organizational Leadership (MSOL) and a bachelor's degree in Human Resources Management, both from Geneva College. She is the Human Resources and Benefits Manager for Crawford Consulting Services, Inc.

Marcy Stevenson

Marcy is a lifelong member of the parish. She has a bachelor's degree in English Literature from the University of Pittsburgh and a bachelor's degree in Professional Communications and Information Systems and a master's degree in Internet Information Systems from Robert Morris University. She works at BNY Mellon as a Mainframe Specialist Developer.

Mary Stevens

Mary has been a member of the parish since 1976. She holds a master's degree in Social Work from the University of Pittsburgh and worked for 40+ years in various healthcare settings, primarily serving elderly populations in nursing homes and hospice care, until her retirement.

WHAT DO YOU BELIEVE GOD IS DOING IN OUR PARISH RIGHT NOW?

I believe that God is trying to bring our three parish worship sites together to make a dynamic, missionary parish in our area. I believe that we can be a strong Catholic parish serving the needs of all. - Linda Schroeder

I feel that God is doing great things at Archangel Gabriel Parish and He is providing parishioners with ways to fellowship with one another. Things like the Farmer's Market, Alpha, the Bible Study group at St. Mary's, Family Catechesis, and many others, are allowing members to connect with one another in faith. It is so encouraging to witness, and I can't wait to see more ways in which our parish can evolve! - Ashley Schlaegle

I believe God is guiding our parish through a unification process to better serve Him. There are tremendous evangelization opportunities to make missionary disciples in the western portion of our diocese. Archangel Gabriel Parish is uniquely positioned to meet those needs and I feel strongly that the Lord is leading us to fulfill that demand. - Greg Muha

As in every Catholic parish, God in His mercy offers us the opportunity to know, love, and serve Him through the Sacraments and through various social and outreach ministries and catechesis. Currently in our parish, I see God guiding us to improve faith formation by equipping families to be the primary educators of their children in the faith, which is an essential step for changing nominal Catholics to practising Catholics. - Marcy Stevenson

I feel our parish is a microcosm of our community, the world and the greater Church as a whole. We are tasked to meet people where they are as people are in different places spiritually. Being nimble in how we share Christ with others seems prudent. - Chris Blatt

I think that God may be challenging us at Archangel Gabriel Parish to move out of our comfort zones and expand our vision of what it means to be Catholic in our little corner of the world in 2022. He wants to nurture us to grow in love for each other, to invite, and to joyfully welcome all into His loving presence. - Mary Stevens

NATIONALITY FESTIVAL

OCTOBER 6, 7, & 8 | ST. MALACHY CAMPUS

Prepare yourself for outstanding cooking by our many volunteers in Italian, German, Mexican, Slovak, and American cuisines. Donuts, funnel cakes, and the cookie patch will all return as well - along with a new booth we're planning.

Our goal is to improve on what we do well by getting members of our Parish family from all of the church communities involved. There is much more going on beyond cooking, and we hope you can help!

We need someone to manage our Slovak Booth. Halupki (stuffed cabbage) is among the favorite foods each year and the person who ran the booth in the past has moved out of the area. If you have a favorite family recipe for halupki, we want you. Don't hesitate to call us.

IF YOU'RE INTERESTED IN JOINING THE FUN, PLEASE CONTACT TIM DAVIS AT 412-445-0113 OR KARL FOERSTER AT 412-759-1340.

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS FAMILY OF THE MONTH - RONI AND TERRY ROJAHN

As a self-described laid-back quiet family that volunteers when they can for God and not to be noticed, Roni and Terry Rojahn emulate what it takes to move our Parish forward from good to great.

Terry converted to the Catholic faith not long after they became parishioners of Holy Trinity, now Archangel Gabriel Parish, 38 years ago. Along the way they raised two children Angelia and Tom, who are now adults, and they have four wonderful grandchildren.

Both Roni and Terry currently serve as Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion, and they have volunteered at the Pizza Kitchen, the Fish Fry, and the former Holy Trinity School Festivals while their children were in school.

Terry has also worked the Bingo games and serves as a Faithful Adorer of Adoration while Roni has served food during the Parish Picnic, currently serves as one of the Coordinators for Faithful Adorers of Adoration, and she is a member of the Ladies Guild where she has secured vendors to rent tables and organized them for the annual Ladies Guild Craft Show. While their children were still in school, Roni volunteered in the school kitchen and helped with various grade activities.

When not quietly working to make our Parish better, Terry and Roni enjoy their granddaughter's music concerts where she plays the violin and their grandson's sports including baseball games.

COMMUNITY NEWS & EVENTS

JACOB GRUBER ORDAINED AS TRANSITIONAL DEACON

Auxiliary Bishop Mark A. Eckman ordained three seminarians as transitional deacons in the presence of Bishop David Zubik on Saturday, June 4 at 10:00 AM at St. Therese Church of St. Thomas the Apostle Parish: Jacob H. Gruber at Theological College and the Catholic University of America in Washington, DC; and Daniel J. D'Antonio and Thomas G. Kadlick at St. Vincent Seminary in Latrobe, PA.

Transitional deacons are men who are in their final stages of preparation for the Catholic priesthood. They have spent at least six years in priestly formation, which includes academic studies in philosophy and theology, growth in virtue and a life of prayer and immersion in service work in the community, among other things.

Catholic deacons are ordained for two primary roles: service at the altar in the celebration of the sacraments and works of charity in the community. Deacons assist the priest and can preach the homily at Mass; they can also baptize and can celebrate weddings and funerals that do not take place during Mass. Through works of charity, deacons serve at soup kitchens and food banks, visit the elderly and infirm in personal care homes, visit those in prison, and lead programs such as Bible studies at their parishes.

Following his second year of theology at Theological College and the Catholic University of America, Jacob was assigned to the parishes of Holy Trinity in Robinson Township, Saint John of God in McKees Rocks, and Saint Malachy in Kennedy Township, for his pastoral year assignment. Effective June 14, 2022, Deacon Jacob has been re-assigned to Archangel Gabriel Parish until his priestly ordination. Please join us in congratulating him and welcoming him back to our parish community.

INVITATION TO DIOCESAN KICK-OFF OF EUCHARISTIC REVIVAL ON THE SOLEMNITY OF CORPUS CHRISTI

Sunday, June 19 | Please arrive by 11:30 AM
St. Paul Cathedral
108 North Dithridge Street, Pittsburgh

All of the lay faithful, priests, deacons, and religious of the Diocese of Pittsburgh are invited to participate in the noon Mass and Procession on Corpus Christi Sunday, June 19 at St. Paul Cathedral. Bishop David Zubik will be the celebrant and homilist at the Mass, and afterwards will lead the Procession with the Blessed Sacrament through the streets of Oakland. The celebration will initiate the National Eucharistic Revival in the Diocese of Pittsburgh. Young people from 2nd to 12th grade are especially encouraged to participate. First Holy Communicants are invited to wear their First Holy Communion attire. All who will attend are asked to be in the Cathedral by 11:30 AM.

With great joy, we celebrate our First Communicants

THE SOLEMNITY OF THE MOST HOLY TRINITY

COOKING TOGETHER

NO-BAKE STRAWBERRY CHEESECAKE PARFAIT

Strawberries were planted in medieval Trinity gardens because of their three-pointed leaves. Celebrate with these light and delicious no-bake strawberry cheesecake parfaits.

Ingredients

- 2 pounds strawberries, stemmed and sliced
- 1 tablespoon sugar
- 8 ounces reduced-fat cream cheese
- ½ cup plain non-fat Greek yogurt
- 1 teaspoon vanilla extract
- ½ cup confectioner's sugar
- 1-½ cups frozen non-fat whipped topping, thawed, divided
- ⅔ cup graham cracker crumbs

Instructions

- In bowl, sprinkle the stemmed and sliced strawberries with sugar. Gently toss to combine and set aside while you make the "cheesecake cream."
- In mixing bowl, beat cream cheese, yogurt, and confectioners sugar until smooth. Gently stir in ½ cup whipped topping.
- To assemble parfaits, divide the ingredients among 8 dishes or glasses. Layer graham cracker crumbs, cream cheese filling, and strawberries.
- Repeat layers and end with a dollop of whipped topping.

THE SUNDAY GOSPEL

JN 16:12-15

Jesus said to his disciples: "I have much more to tell you, but you cannot bear it now. But when he comes, the Spirit of truth, he will guide you to all truth. He will not speak on his own, but he will speak what he hears, and will declare to you the things that are coming. He will glorify me, because he will take from what is mine and declare it to you. Everything that the Father has is mine; for this reason I told you that he will take from what is mine and declare it to you."

CONNECTING THE GOSPEL TO YOUR FAMILY

THE GIFT OF SELFLESS LOVE

Think of the last time you witnessed an act of selfless love in your family. Parents and caregivers of all kinds are called upon to act selflessly every day. Family life calls us to share selfless love with one another.

God is the model for us of selfless love. There was no need for God to create our planet or the creatures that inhabit it; it was an act of selfless love. There was also no need for God to send his only Son to save us. That too was an act of selfless love.

As we draw closer to God and the mystery of the Trinity, we learn about God's love. God has lavished us with love in the persons of the Son and the Spirit, who in turn nurture in us the desire to do the same. When we open ourselves to be filled with an awareness of the divine life within us, we participate in the endless spiral of love that leads to eternal life. Whenever we share selfless love in the family, we are sharing in the life of the Trinity.

FIRST READING — PROVERBS 8: 22-31

Thus says the wisdom of God: "The LORD possessed me, the beginning of his ways, the forerunner of his prodigies of long ago; from of old I was poured forth, at the first, before the earth. When there were no depths I was brought forth, when there were no fountains or springs of water; before the mountains were settled into place, before the hills, I was brought forth; while as yet the earth and fields were not made, nor the first clouds of the world.

"When the Lord established the heavens I was there, when he marked out the vault over the face of the deep; when he made firm the skies above, when he fixed fast the foundations of the earth; when he set for the sea its limit, so that the waters should not transgress his command; then was I beside him as his craftsman, and I was his delight day by day, playing before him all the while, playing on the surface of his earth; and I found delight in the human race."

WORSHIP AID

RESPONSORIAL PSALM — PSALM 8: O LORD, OUR GOD, HOW WONDERFUL YOUR NAME IN ALL THE EARTH!

When I see the heavens, the work of your fingers,
the moon and the stars which you arranged,
what is man that you should keep him
in mind,
the son of man that you care for him? R.

Yet you have made him little lower than the angels;

with glory and honor you crowned him, gave him power over the works of your hands:
you put all things under his feet. R.

All of them, sheep and oxen,
yes, even the cattle of the fields,
birds of the air, and fish of the sea that make their way through the waters. R.

SECOND READING — ROMANS 5: 1-5

Brothers and sisters: Therefore, since we have been justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have gained access by faith to this grace in which we stand, and we boast in hope of the glory of God. Not only that, but we even boast of our afflictions, knowing that affliction produces endurance, and endurance, proven character, and proven character, hope, and hope does not disappoint, because the love of God has been poured out into our hearts through the Holy Spirit that has been given to us.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Verse: Glory to the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit; to God who is, who was, and who is to come.

GOSPEL — JOHN 16: 12-15

Jesus said to his disciples: "I have much more to tell you, but you cannot bear it now. But when he comes, the Spirit of truth, he will guide you to all truth. He will not speak on his own, but he will speak what he hears, and will declare to you the things that are coming. He will glorify me, because he will take from what is mine and declare it to you. Everything that the Father has is mine; for this reason I told you that he will take from what is mine and declare it to you."

THE NICENE CREED

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

LITANY OF THE HOLY TRINITY

Lord, have mercy.
 Christ, have mercy.
 Lord, have mercy.
 God, the Father of Heaven,
 God, the Son, Redeemer of the world,
 God, the Holy Spirit,
 Father from whom are all things,
 Son through whom are all things,
 Spirit in whom are all things,
 Father everlasting,
 Only-begotten Son,
 Spirit who proceeds from Father and Son,
 Father, the Creator,
 Son, the Redeemer,
 Spirit, the Advocate and Comforter,
 Co-eternal Majesty of three divine Persons,
 Holy, holy, holy, Lord God of Hosts,
 Who is, who was, who will be forever,
 God above the heavens and beyond eternity,
 To whom is due all honor and glory,
 Power infinite,
 Wisdom unfathomable,
 Love beyond all telling,
 That we may ever serve you,
 That we may worship you in spirit and in truth,
 That we may love you with all our heart, soul, and strength,
 That we may love our neighbor for your sake,
 That we may one day see you as you are,
 That we may behold your beauty forever,

*Lord, have mercy.
 Christ, have mercy.
 Lord, have mercy.
 Have mercy on us.
 Have mercy on us.
 Have mercy on us.
 Have mercy on us.
 Have mercy on us.
 Have mercy on us.
 Have mercy on us.
 Have mercy on us.
 Have mercy on us.
 Have mercy on us.
 Have mercy on us.
 Have mercy on us.
 Have mercy on us.
 Have mercy on us.
 Have mercy on us.
 Hear our prayer.
 Hear our prayer.
 Hear our prayer.
 Hear our prayer.
 Hear our prayer.
 Hear our prayer.*

Let us pray.

O God, whose mercies are without number and whose treasure of goodness is infinite, graciously increase the faith of the people consecrated to you, that all may grasp and rightly understand by whose love they have been created, through whose Blood they have been redeemed, and by whose Spirit they have been reborn, through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever. Amen.
