A MESSAGE FROM OUR CLERGY

Fr. Alan Morris
Parish Administrator

BEING FED BY THE WORD OF CHRIST

The crowds gathered to be fed by the Word of Christ, a different message compelling them to leave behind the empty experience of their present faith life. Because what they were receiving before Jesus wasn't feeding them, we find them today arriving exhausted and utterly spent. Jesus notices and asks the disciples to beg God for more ministers of word and sacrament to hear the call to serve and to answer that call.

We are happy to say that there are three young men who will be ordained to the priesthood this upcoming Saturday, including our own Deacon Jacob Gruber. We know his family has answered the call as Jacob will be the third priest from his family. While the rest of us ponder what specific call the Lord is asking us to answer, we look for answers our people provide us with to show how they are doing just that.

I wrote last month about the results from the DMI survey coming to us by the end of May. As of this writing (June 1st) they came in one week ago. (Due to vacations and scheduling, we had to prepare five bulletins in advance through the first weekend of July which is no easy task!) What we received were twelve reports organized into three sections. Each of these takes into consideration the 79 questions you answered. The volume of information is huge and there is no way to arrange that much information to you at one time. We have an Envisioning Team who will be diving into these reports with me to see how best we can present them to you and to explain their meaning to you. By the time we get a handle on this, we will be in mid-summer at the earliest. Please be patient with our unpacking of this material. This team will begin meeting formally in mid-August, and we will continue to do so through at least mid-January 2024. Please pray for us and for the inspiration of the Holy Spirit to guide us and our advisor from Catholic Leadership Institute, who will be with us to build our Next Generation Parish vision in the next three to four years.

YOU'RE INVITED!

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS FAMILY SPOTLIGHT: MAY 2023

BILL AND SUE LEININGER

Bill, a lifelong member of Holy Trinity Church (now a part of Archangel Gabriel Parish), married Sue on October 18, 1997, at St. Bernadette's in Monroeville. They later raised their four children: Rachael and Matthew (both baptized at Holy Trinity) and Michael and Joseph (both baptized at St. Patrick's Church). All four children had their other sacraments at Holy Trinity and graduated from Holy Trinity and later Our Lady of the Sacred Heart High School. Both Bill and Sue have been highly active in parish life over the years, serving at many events, such as the Holy Trinity Bingo, Fish Fries, Church Festivals, and the Farmers Market, with their children pitching in as chaperones on Youth Mission Trips and pretty much anything else asked of them. Both are a part of the Archangel Gabriel Parish Adoration team.

Sue, who worked as a computer teacher at Holy Trinity School for seven years, served as a parish CCD/Faith Formation teacher for over 20 years, a Lector, a member of the Holy Trinity Pastoral Council for three years, and a High School Youth Group leader for three years, including many mission trips. Bill was a member and Vice President of the Holy Trinity School Athletic Association for ten years and is a member of the Archangel Gabriel Knights of Columbus Council #11279.

Rachael, Matthew, Michael, and Joseph were all members of the Holy Trinity Youth Group and, with Bill and Sue, went on multiple mission trips around the country, serving those in need. Matthew, Michael, and Joseph were also altar servers for many years.

ARCHANGEL GABRIEL CATHOLIC SCHOOL

END OF THE SCHOOL YEAR

We had a fantastic year! Students learned hundreds of new things, celebrated sports championships, got a new gym, won spelling bees, won school challenges, fundraised, had countless special events, and most importantly grew tremendously in faith. Thank you to all of our teachers, staff, clergy, families, and community for making this year one of extreme growth.

8TH GRADE TRIP TO WASHINGTON, D.C.

Our 8th grade had an unforgettable experience for their final class trip. Their experiences included the Air and Space Museum, Bible Museum, National Portrait Gallery, and Lincoln, Jefferson, World War II, and Theodore Roosevelt Memorials. It was a day they will never forget, and we were blessed with wonderful weather, great volunteers, and the best history teacher, Mr. Betten, who made the day complete with his wisdom. What a perfect experience to end their grade school career!

KNIGHT-A-THON UPDATE

After a successful revamp of our Knight-A-Thon, we raised close to $29,000, which goes directly toward the operating budget and to help keep tuition costs stable. The success of our two-week fundraiser is because of our parents, families, teachers, volunteers, staff, and the local community. On May 19, our students danced over a combined 10,000 minutes to help our school! We celebrated our community, coming together and creating unforgettable memories at the dance event. We reached our $15,000 goal, and Dr. Swiger dressed up as Batman. We also reached our $25,000 goal, and the students got to eat their lunch outside for a picnic. Thank you for your support of our school. We're grateful for our AGS community! Check out our Dance-A-Thon at <https://youtu.be/wnCnGbyEbsE>.
