A MESSAGE FROM OUR CLERGY

Fr. Alan E. Morris
Parish Administrator

AN INVITATION TO PRAISE HIM

Isaiah rejoices in being chosen by God, a designation for a holy purpose. He says he has been anointed, which is also a sign of approval that the work he does for the Lord is intended to lift up the people of God. In whatever state of life we find ourselves, we are all invited to give praise to Him for “a year of favor from the Lord and a day of vindication by our God” has been announced to us! Isaiah invites us to join our spirit with his and to celebrate the approaching closeness of Christ. This Third Sunday of Advent makes the meaning of the message feel much closer to our hearts. The birth of Jesus will be upon us in just over a week. How joyful is your soul? The soul of Isaiah rejoices heartily in the Lord as he feels the protection of God’s presence. He feels the movement of God prompting justice and praise to spring up before all the nations. We need to feel that movement of God today as well.

As the Pharisees sent priests and Levites to John the Baptist at the Jordan River to find out who he was and why he was baptizing the people, another proclamation of praise to God comes forth. John directs them to One who is to come, who will touch our lives more deeply than any holy use of water. He wants to transform your life with His life in you! Therefore, listen to Paul in his letter telling us to “rejoice always, never cease praying, and render constant thanks, for such is God’s will for you in Christ Jesus”. With the strength of such a joy-filled spirit, there is no room for doubt in our hearts. Paul wishes us to feel the peace of God making us perfect in holiness. He will preserve us from all that draws us away from Him.

SECOND COLLECTION DURING ALL CHRISTMAS MASSES

There will be a second collection benefiting Children and Youth during all Christmas Masses (December 24 and 25).

AGS TEACHERS ARE THE BEST!

Our teachers each donate a prize for the annual AGS auction, typically allowing students to spend time with them participating in a special activity. Over the weekend Mrs. Crawford and Mrs. Boylan, our preschool teachers, hosted the winners of their teacher auction prize - an evening of holiday fun at the school - so that their parents could spend time shopping, dining out, or simply relaxing. The kids enjoyed having pizza, making Christmas crafts, playing games, and decorating cookies. It was a fun way for everyone to kick off the holiday season! Thank you so much, Mrs. Boylan, Mrs. Crawford, and all of our AGS teachers, for your special gifts!

AGS IS HIRING!

FORMED

THE CATHOLIC FAITH.
ON DEMAND.

Agape/Love | Advent: Word Studies | The Bible Project

The word "love" is one of the sloppiest words in our language, as it primarily refers to a feeling that happens to a person. In the New Testament, "love" refers to a way of treating people that was defined by Jesus himself: seeking the well-being of others regardless of their response.

Our parish has a FORMED subscription. Visit formed.org/signup and select our parish. Scan the QR code to download the FORMED app to your phone.
