MESSAGE FROM THE CLERGY

AN HOUR OF GRACE LENTEN CHALLENGE

In leading up to Lent, we heard the Lord ask a hard question: Why don't you perceive the wooden beam in your eyes? It is difficult for us to be self-reflective, especially when we don't even know our truest identity. What is our truest identity? We are the beloved of God, we are the body of Christ. Therefore, to see clearly, to even notice the beam in our own eye, we must see with the eyes of Christ. However, to see with his eyes means we must know Christ more intimately, more deeply, more authentically, more lovingly. We are Christians, and everything in our lives is only perceived clearly through Christ.

Lent is the special time of the Liturgical Year during which we challenge ourselves in prayer, fasting, and almsgiving. Why? So, we can grow closer to Christ and see the world as he sees it. The closer we come to Christ, the more clearly we see ourselves. For that reason, as a clergy team, we are issuing a challenge to come one hour closer to Christ each week during Lent - a challenge we are calling "An Hour of Grace".

That can mean coming to meet Christ in his home, bringing him into our own homes, or finding him in our community. A pilgrimage to the Church, where the Lord is always Eucharistically present, brings us face-to-face with the true presence of Christ; inviting him into our homes allows us to encounter the Lord in the familiarity of our lives, where he longs to find us; and meeting him with our brothers and sisters in the community allows us to see that faith is not lived out in isolation but in relationship with others. It is encountering Christ which allows us to learn who he is and see who we are as members of his Body.

Join us this Lent in adding an Hour of Grace every week, removing our beams, and letting Christ teach us, once and for all, to see clearly.

This page represents the financial statement for Archangel Gabriel Parish for the fiscal six-month period ended December 31, 2024. This financial statement is presented in a standard format that all parishes within the Diocese of Pittsburgh utilize.

During this time period, we launched a new offertory envelope program, which has improved service, reduced waste, saved on overall cost, and fully integrated all collections, providing more secure control of financial information. In direct correlation with the completion of the the parish census, we were able to properly align our database that is used to control parishioner mailings which resulted in a significant cost savings. We included an additional envelope for building upkeep to focus funds on much needed repairs for all three of our church locations. Our mission will continue as we reconstitute the finance council and establish plans for building and ground repairs and improvements. As a reminder, the Parish Appeal goal for our parish is $279,972. If you haven't returned your Parish Appeal pledge card, there is still time. A monthly Parish Appeal envelope is also provided in your bi-monthly envelope packs.

INVITE ONE BACK TRAINING

In light of the National Eucharistic Revival, the Catholic Diocese of Pittsburgh has partnered with St. Paul Street Evangelization to offer this unique one-day workshop. The training will help you discover and understand missionary discipleship based on Eucharistic sending, provide an approach on how to invite others back to Mass, and anticipate various conversations. We will review the basic methodology of listen, befriend, proclaim, and invite, and review and practice door to door ministry. All of this will be done within a framework of non-confrontational, relational ministry. The training will take place on Saturday, March 15, from 8:00 AM – 4:00 PM at St. Bonaventure Church (2001 Mount Royal Boulevard, Glenshaw, PA 15116). Participants who complete the training will receive basic certification, membership on the online training site, and materials both to engage their parishes and schools in the work of evangelization and to evangelize in the circumstances of their everyday life. The training is free, but registration is required. We will provide lunch. Register online at <https://evangelizationschool.com/store/product/invite-one-back-training-in-pittsburgh-315>.
