Kind mother of the Redeemer,
who remain the open gate of heaven and the star of the sea:
help your falling people who want to rise,
you who bore your holy Parent, while nature marveled:
a Virgin before and after, receiving that 'Ave' from Gabriel's mouth, have mercy on [us] sinners.
Let us worship forever the most holy Sacrament.

3 | MESSAGE FROM THE PASTOR

Fr. Ken Marlovits
Pastor

The Joy of Being Church: It is with great joy that Archangel Gabriel Parish is able to welcome into Full Communion our twelve candidates at the 10:00 AM Mass at Holy Trinity Church this weekend. Please see our OCIA update in this bulletin and remember to pray both in thanksgiving and support for these newest full members of our Catholic faith. Welcome and God bless. If you know of anyone interested in becoming Catholic, remember we have Come and See events on January 18 and 25. Don't keep the joy of being Catholic to yourself and don't fear extending the invitation to join our faith. All it may take is a personal invitation from you for someone to come to know the Love of the Lord.

Our Next Third Place Saturday: This upcoming Saturday, we will host our January Third Place event. The speaker series will feature Deacon Tim with a talk on Mediation and Contemplation in the Catholic Tradition. A simple service project will be available for all ages. There will also be fellowship and prayer, opportunities for adoration and confession, and lots of great companionship. Remember, you can come and go as you like. Nothing is required; everything is optional. See the ad in this bulletin for more information.

A Sign of Hospitality and Love: Carrying Christmas Beyond the Door: As we celebrate the Baptism of the Lord today, we reach a pivotal moment. The Christmas season "ends" liturgically, but our mission as a "Christmas people" is only beginning.

Over the last few weeks, I've written about not rushing through the Christmas season. Last week, you were invited to take blessed chalk to mark your door frames with the Epiphany blessing. This is more than a tradition; it is a signature. By marking your lintel (the beam over your door), you identified your home as a place of "Epiphany"—a sanctuary where the love of God is made known to every guest who enters.

The Grace of the Threshold: However, we are also called to leave our "Christmas homes" and enter a "hurrying world" that often forgets Christ. To help me stay "Christmas-centered" as I exit my home, I am trying something new this year: I am filling the holy water font at the entrance of the rectory with Epiphany Holy Water. As I leave each morning, I will bless myself with this water to prepare for the graces God has waiting for me and to remind myself to carry the light of Christ into the world. Thanks to Fr. Li and Ken Zern, our parish holy water tanks are currently filled with this Epiphany Water for you to take home.

What is Epiphany Water?: Epiphany Holy Water is a sacramental that specifically commemorates Christ's Baptism in the Jordan, where He "sanctified the waters" for the salvation of the world. While it carries the same sacramental graces as "regular" holy water, it is regarded with great reverence because of the intensity of the rite used to create it. The Blessing of Epiphany Water is a beautiful, hour-long liturgy that includes:

- The Litany of Saints: Connecting us to the "Communion of Saints."
- The Psalms: Specifically Psalms 28, 45, and 146, which exhort us to praise God for his protection.
- Exorcism & Blessing: Powerful prayers over the salt and water to deliver us from spiritual and natural evils.
- The Te Deum: An ancient Latin hymn of praise.

From Our Home to the World: As we transition from the Christmas Season into Ordinary Time, let us use these signs—the chalk on our doors and the water in our fonts—to ensure that the joy of the Christmas manifestation, and the Baptism of the Lord revelation doesn't end with the season. Let us embrace this epiphany of God's love and service by embracing our own baptismal call to be Christ to the world. Let us be people who live lives of welcome, peace, joy, and fellowship. As Hebrews 13:2 reminds us: "Do not neglect hospitality, for through it some have unknowingly entertained angels." May all who enter our homes (our domestic Churches) and all those we encounter in the world experience within us a manifestation of the guiding light of Christ, our newborn King and Savior.

Merry Christmas, and thanks for celebrating the season with me. May we all find a way to carry the joy of Christmas into our world and the ordinary time of our lives.

Congratulations Sarah and Gary.

Second Collection Next Weekend January 17 & 18 St. Anthony School Programs & DePaul School for Hearing and Speech

There will be a second collection at all Masses next weekend in support of the St. Anthony School Programs and DePaul School for Hearing and Speech, two diocesan ministries that serve children and adults with special needs.

St. Anthony School Programs offer an inclusive education to children ages 5-21 with Down syndrome, Autism Spectrum Disorder, and other special needs. DePaul School for Hearing and Speech teaches children who are deaf, hard of hearing, or who have severe speech delays to listen, speak, and learn. Together, St. Anthony's and DePaul empower students to become active and contributing members of their local communities. With your help, through this special collection, we can support our students' spiritual and academic growth and give back the joy that they share with us every day. Learn more at stanthonykids.org or depaulhearingandspeech.org.

OCIA UPDATE

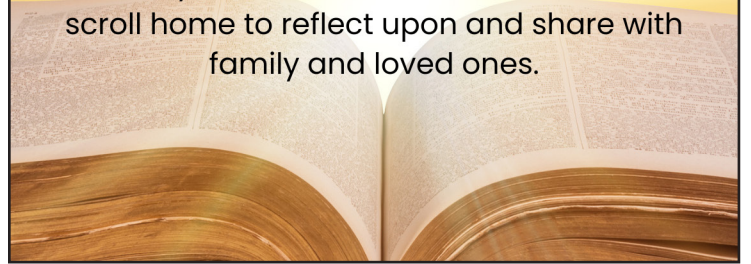

Today, at the 10:00 AM Mass at Holy Trinity Church, we joyfully welcome into the Full Communion of the Catholic Church our OCIA Candidates (those already baptized). They received the Sacrament of Penance for the first time at the OCIA Reconciliation Retreat and are fully prepared to join us at the Eucharistic table. Please pray for them today and moving forward as they begin their new lives as Catholic Christians: Matthew Bernarding, Timothy Bruce, Alexis Burke, Michelle DiMichele, Monica Filipovitz, Stephanie Garner, Nicole Muto, Fatmir Odza, Bethany Padilla, Daniel Pogue, Lesley Rice, and Alecia Wolf. Please also continue to remember in prayer our unbaptized OCIA and OCIC Catechumens and child Candidates who continue to prepare for their sacraments this Easter.

If you are interested in becoming Catholic, our next cohort begins this month! We invite you to register for one of the Come-and-See sessions on January 18 or 25 at ArchangelGabrielParish.org/OCIA. For more information or additional questions, please contact Patty Sampogna at psampogna@archangelgabrielparish.org.

Word of God Sunday January 25, 2026

Pope Francis called on the faithful to set aside "a Sunday given over entirely to the word of God, so as to appreciate the inexhaustible riches contained in that constant dialogue between the Lord and his people" (Misericordia et Misera, 7).

In recognition of this day, Scripture Scrolls will be hung on a Christmas Tree at each of the AGP Churches during the weekend of January 24 & 25. You are invited to take a scroll home to reflect upon and share with family and loved ones.

The Ladies of Charity would like to thank our wonderful parishioners for the amazing response to our Christmas project this year. Our list was long - 630 individuals - and all received gifts. We thank you for all the ways you have supported our project: buying and returning your gifts in a timely manner; helping us load the gifts into our cars; carrying the gifts to our sorting area; making monetary donations; and even providing extra toys and miscellaneous items. Thank you also for your prayers and especially for the awesome response in choosing the remaining 119 persons in less than two hours! May God bless you and your families abundantly in the new year.

AGS CHRISTMAS CONCERT

We held our AGS Christmas Concert on Friday, December 19. Students in PreK - 8th grade performed and did a wonderful job. The concert was fun and festive, and the songs helped everyone get into the holiday spirit. The Christmas Concert is always a joyful way to celebrate the season together. Thank you to our music teacher, Mr. Perez, for all of his hard work. Great job, AGS!

COACH HINDS CHRISTMAS SKILLS EXHIBITION

Coach Hinds held his annual Christmas Skills Exhibition on December 20! Our developmental boys and girls basketball players demonstrated the drills, stretches, and fundamentals they learn at practice that help them to become strong athletes. They had a foul shot and layup contest, followed by a scrimmage. They ended the day with a pizza party with their families. AGS is truly blessed to have Coach Hinds at our school to help mentor our young players. Thank you to Coach Hinds and all of our coaches for the time and passion they put into developing our players!

7TH & 8TH GRADE DANCE

The 7th and 8th grade students had a Grinch-themed dance and had a blast dancing with their friends! A special thank you to our parent volunteers and our DJ for making the night so special!

Please join us at WINGS on Saturday, January 17, from 10:00 - 11:30 AM. We will be welcoming the Holy Name Society to speak on what the Holy Name of Jesus means, the history behind the devotion, and the importance of it in our lives today. We will gather at Sts. John & Paul Catholic Church of St. Luke the Evangelist Parish (2586 Wexford Bayne Road, Sewickley, PA 15143) in the lower Cardinal DiNardo Center, rooms 8 & 9. Please courtesy RSVP at saintluke.net/wings-ev. Coffee/tea and light refreshments will be offered.

PRIDE AND HUMILITY AS LEARNED PATTERNS OF ACTION

Join the Benedictine Oblates on Sunday, January 11, as we explore the writing of Father Michael Casey, OCSO, regarding the ways that pride grows and is eventually displayed in our everyday lives. St. Benedict points to the upward steps of humility. John Cassian and Rievaulx point to the subtle downward steps of pride. Please join us as we begin this new year with Liturgy of the Hours at 1:30 PM. Presentations and discussion will end at 3:00 PM. Please arrive to be seated before 1:30 PM in the Conference Room (top level of LeGras Hall, St. Louise de Marillac Church). All are welcome to join us!

WAYS TO GIVE

It's easier than ever to support the mission and life of the parish.

1. Online

Giving online is a convenient and secure way to support the work of the parish. Go to ArchangelGabrielParish.org/Give to learn more.

2. Mail/Drop Off

Checks made payable to "Archangel Gabriel Parish" can be dropped off at or mailed to the Parish Office:

Archangel Gabriel Parish
5718 Steubenville Pike
McKees Rocks, PA 15136

3. Text to Give

Text a dollar amount to 412-775-2460.

4. Offertory Collection

Donation envelopes can be placed in the offertory basket during Mass.

5. Make a Bequest or Planned Gift

You can remember AGP in your Will or other estate plans. It's simple to do and helps support the future of our parish. For more information, please contact the Parish Office at 412-787-2140.
