May they rest in peace

We prayerfully remember Ambrose Fautsch, Dennis Koss, and all members of our Church of St. Timothy parish family who have died. May they rest in peace and may the grieving know God's consoling and compassionate presence. A list of parish deaths and funeral information can be found on our parish website.

Parish Pastoral Council highlight: Julie Pallow

The Church of St. Timothy Parish Pastoral Council (PPC) advises our pastor on the parish's day-to-day operations and long-term vision, ensuring we are faithful in living out our mission. Our PPC members are here to listen to your ideas and hear your feedback about our parish life. PPC members are highlighted monthly in our bulletin, and in this bulletin, we are highlighting PPC member Julie Pallow.

Formerly a member of the Church of St. William where Fr Joe was pastor, Julie says she "originally came to St. Tim's because of the message Father Joe delivers each Sunday. After spending time at St. Tim's, the community feeling and the commitment to community made it feel like home."

Julie has served on the PPC for two years, with a hiatus for cancer recovery. She chose to join the PPC out of a desire to contribute to the church and bring her professional knowledge and skills. Julie owns a small transactional bookkeeping firm that provides accounting, human resources, and administrative support to entrepreneurs.

Julie and her husband Larry have been together almost twenty years. She enjoys connections with her large extended family: eight siblings, 23 nieces and nephews, 49 great-nieces and great-nephews, and one great-great nephew.

When she's not working or serving at St. Tim's, Julie and Larry enjoy domestic and international travel: "We make a trip to Cabo each winter and have visited almost all the national parks here in the US. We enjoy hiking and exploring, and Larry is quite a photographer, so those opportunities often drive our destinations."

Parish News and Updates

Thank you, Mary Kalk! Welcome Kelly Boxwell!

The Church of St. Timothy wishes Mary Kalk well as she has transitioned out of her role as receptionist. We are grateful for her three years of service on our parish staff and pray for her as she transitions to new endeavors.

We joyfully welcome Kelly Boxwell, our new full-time daytime receptionist who began on Wednesday, September 7. Kelly's father, aunts, and uncle attended St. Timothy school. She is originally from northeast Minneapolis, has lived in Coon Rapids for 25 years, and has two children. Kelly is excited to join our parish staff team and looks forward to getting to know our community.

Prayer at the Church of St. Timothy
Are you looking to bring some new energy to your prayer life? Or to develop a routine of regular personal or community prayer for the first time? Check out the new "prayer opportunities and resources" page on our website that can be accessed through clicking the button on our homepage, www.churchofsttimothy.com.

The page provides an overview of five different prayer styles: intercessory prayer, the rosary, the divine office (liturgy of the hours), lectio divina, and Ignatian contemplation. It also includes information about how you can experience these styles of prayer in community with others in our parish. For more information about these or other forms of prayer, contact Cindy Novak in the parish office. God meets us with love as we are, where we are — the only way to fail at prayer is not to show up.

Mitakuye Oyassin, All My Relations

It's the Season of Creation, a time to pray, learn, reflect, and act to care for God's gift of creation. All parishioners are encouraged to attend our care for creation event that will be held on Sunday, September 25, 6:30-8:00 p.m. in the church. Shawn Phillips, former Pastoral Minister at St. Tim's, will be speaking on American Indian spiritualities' connection to care for creation, as outlined by Pope Francis in Laudato Si. Join us for an evening of learning about the understanding of interconnectedness captured by the phrase mitakuye oyassin, a Dakota saying that translates "all my relations." The presentation will be followed by refreshments. The event is free and open to the public—invite your neighbors, family, and friends to attend!

Men's Club

The Men's Club will meet on Monday, September 19 at 6:30 in the hospitality center. All men of the parish are warmly welcome to join for fellowship and refreshments. If you have questions, contact Mike Huey at 612.269.5337.

RCIA Sponsors Needed

Are you a long-time member of St. Tim's? You would make a great mentor for someone interested in becoming a full member of the Catholic Church! Accompany one of our candidates seeking to learn more about the Catholic faith and to receive sacraments of initiation this year. Through conversations, participating in parish events, prayer for the candidate, and learning together, you will be an inspiring example of living our faith. Contact Cindy Novak, Director of Parish Faith Formation, in the parish office if you are interested in exploring this unique opportunity to share our Catholic faith.
