A FRESH PERSPECTIVE ON THE SUNDAY READINGS

By Rev. William J. Reilly

“When he had finished speaking he said to Simon, ‘Put out into deep water and lower your nets for a catch.’ Simon answered, ‘Master we have been hard at it all night long and have caught nothing, but if you say so I will lower the nets.’ Upon doing this they caught such a great number of fish that their nets were at the breaking point... They filled the two boats until they nearly sank. At the sight of this Peter fell at the feet of Jesus saying, ‘Leave me Lord, I am a sinful man.’”

We hear the teaching from the boat. Can you feel the sway, of the boat, catch the aroma of fish, enjoy the refreshing breeze, feel the coolness of the water? The scene is so clear. Enjoy it.

But the real message is to listen to the invitation of the Lord to go deeper, lower the nets again and don't be surprised. The boat is the church, the nets are the invitation we are to extend to others, those who have never been part of our community, newcomers, backsliders who are waiting to be caught once again. Surely I do not have to say ‘leave me Lord’, but to reach out and bring that person I have in mind back to Him.

BRIEF SYNOPSIS OF SUNDAY READINGS

Pierwsze czytanie: Izajasza 6:1-2a, 3-8

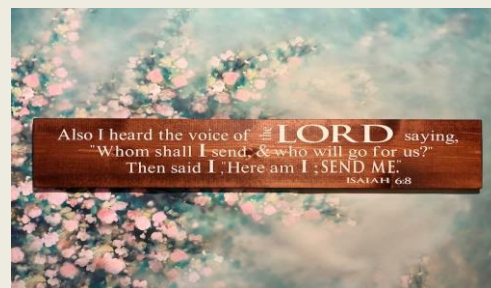

Izajasz opowiada o podziwie, jakie poczuł, gdy po raz pierwszy ujrzał Pana otoczonego aniołami. Zaczął odczuwać rozpacz, ponieważ był człowiekiem o nieczystych ustach, aż anioł dotknął żarem jego ust i uznał je za czyste. Pan zapytał, kogo powinien posyłać, na co Izajasz odpowiedział: „Oto jestem, poślij mnie!”

Second Reading: 1 Corinthians 15:1-11

Paul reminds the Corinthians that Christ died for us to free us from our sins. He encourages them to remember the importance of Jesus' death and resurrection. He admits that he initially failed to believe, and therefore was very grateful to be called an apostle and preach in the name of Christ.

Evangelio: Lucas 5:1-11

Lucas habla de Jesús predicando a una multitud y luego uniéndose a Pedro, que estaba a punto de terminar un día de pesca infructuoso. Le dijo a Pedro que volviera a bajar la red y atrapó una gran cantidad de peces. Al ver esto, Pedro y sus compañeros, Santiago y Juan, inmediatamente abandonaron sus redes para seguir a Jesús.

HELP NEEDED

We are trying to put together a list of volunteers who are able to help with our snow removal this winter. We will call people on a rotating basis so that it won't be too much of a burden on anyone. If you are willing to help, please call the Rectory so we can put your name on the list. This would also be a good opportunity for anyone who is need of service hours for school. Thank you.

THE WINDOW FROM WHICH WE LOOK

A young couple moves into a new neighborhood. The next morning while they are eating breakfast, the young woman sees her neighbor hanging the wash outside. "That laundry is not very clean", she said. "She doesn't know how to wash correctly. Perhaps she needs better laundry soap."

Her husband looked on, but remained silent.

Every time her neighbor would hand her wash to dry, the young woman would make the same comments.

About one month later, the woman was surprised to see a nice clean wash on the line and said to her husband: "Look, she has learned how to wash correctly. I wonder who taught her this."

The husband said, "I got up early this morning and cleaned our windows."

And so it is with life.

What we see when watching others depends on the purity of the window through which we look.

PENNY SOCIAL

Our Religious Education Program is planning a Penny Social on Friday, April 29th. We are asking all Parishioners to please donate any unused new items. They can dropped off at the Parish Center while school is in session on Sunday 9:30 am to 11:00 am or Monday 5:30 pm to 7:00 pm. Thank you for your assistance.
