BRIEF SYNOPSIS OF SUNDAY READINGS

First Reading: Isaiah 43:16-21

God says not to remember the events from long ago, but to focus on the things he plans to do next. He also claims he will again help his chosen people when they need him.

Segunda Lectura: Filipenses 3:8-14

Pablo describe el conocimiento de Jesús como más importante que el conocimiento de la Ley Antigua. Quiere compartir el poder de la resurrección de Jesús y habla de concentrarse en la meta de la carrera con la salvación como premio a ganar.

Ewangelia: Jana 8:1-11

Jezus głosił przebaczenie grzechów, ale w starym prawie oskarżeni o cudzołóstwo mieli być ukamienowani. Dlatego faryzeusze próbowali złapać Jezusa w pułapkę i przyprowadzili do niego kobietę oskarżoną o cudzołóstwo, prosząc go, co by jej zrobił. Jezus poprosił tego, kto bez grzechu rzucił pierwszy kamień, a potem wszyscy starsi odeszli. Jezus powiedział kobiecie, że jej nie potępił, ale ostrzegł ją, by w przyszłości unikała takiego grzechu.

A FRESH PERSPECTIVE ON THE SUNDAY READINGS

By Rev. William J. Reilly

“I consider everything as a loss because of the supreme good of knowing Christ Jesus my Lord. For his sake I have accepted the loss of all things, and I consider them so much rubbish, that I may gain Christ and be found in him... depending on faith to know him and the power of his resurrection...”

How often we hear the expression ‘a win-lose situation.’ As we approach the days ahead, we change this equation, for the paschal mystery for us is a win-win reality. The suffering and death of Jesus, leads to His resurrection, and gaining of new life for us. How easy it is for us to forget that the passion and death of Jesus was not just His effort, but it occurred for us, as we read and reflect on Paul’s words today.

Today Jesus bends down, writes in the sand. As no one cast the first stone but walked away, may we forgive others and hear Jesus tell us: ‘Neither do I condemn you, go and from now on do not sin anymore.’ Before Holy Week, get to confession. That’s our win-win situation.

THE FENCE

There once was a little boy with a bad temper. His father gave him a bag of nails and told him that every time he lost his temper, to hammer a nail in the back fence. The first day the boy had driven 37 nails into the fence. Then it gradually dwindled down. He discovered it was easier to hold his temper than to drive those nails into the fence. Finally the day came when the boy didn't lose his temper at all. He told his father about it and the father suggested that the boy now pull out one nail for each day that he was able to hold his temper. The days passed and the young boy was finally able to tell his father that all the nails were gone. The father took his son by the hand and led him to the fence. He said, "You have done well, my son, but look at the holes in the fence. The fence will never be the same. When you say things in anger, they leave a scar just like this one. You can put a knife in a man and draw it out. It won't matter how many times you say I'm sorry, the wound is still there. A verbal wound is as bad as a physical one.

Our words and actions always have consequences. Let us try our best to always make them possite ones.
