BRIEF SYNOPSIS OF SUNDAY READINGS

Primera Lectura: Hechos 13:14, 43-52

Pablo y Bernabé se dirigieron a muchas personas y una gran multitud se reunió para escucharlos. Algunos de los judíos se pusieron celosos y discutían con todo lo que decía Pablo. Pero Pablo y Bernabé continuaron predicando su mensaje de salvación y vida eterna, hasta que finalmente se vieron obligados a abandonar el pueblo.

Drugie czytanie: Objawienie 7:9, 14b-17

Jan miał wizję wielu ludzi otaczających tron i Baranka. Jeden ze starszych powiedział mu, że byli to ludzie, którzy przeżyli wielkie okresy prób, ale zachowali silną wiarę w Boga. Teraz otrzymaliby wieczną ochronę i pocieszenie od Boga w nagrodę za swoją lojalność.

Gospel: John 10:27-30

Jesus states that his sheep know his voice and follow him, and will receive eternal life. Jesus also says that no one can snatch his followers away, because God is greater than anyone who might try, and Jesus is one with God.

A FRESH PERSPECTIVE ON THE SUNDAY READINGS

by Rev. William J. Reilly

“Then one of the elders said to me: ‘These are the ones who have survived the time of great distress, they have washed their robes in the blood of the Lamb.’ For this reason, they stand before God's throne and worship him day and night in his temple. The one who sits on the throne will shelter them...But the Lamb who is at the center of the throne will shepherd them and lead them to springs of life-giving water. And God will wipe away every tear from their eyes.”

The book of revelation offers us, on this Good Shepherd Sunday, a wonderful image of our Shepherd, caring for us in every way. The past two years have found us struggling with a pandemic, taking countless lives, altering lifestyles, depriving us of what we once considered ‘normal.’

These events give us greater reason to seek the Lord and the shelter He provides. The role of shepherd to lead, to guide, to feed and heal, continues today, and it is Jesus, and in Him alone that we can find what we need. He offers us comfort, care, protection, but like the lost sheep we must search for Him as He seeks us. If I am honest, with myself and with God, I realize that the church, the sacraments, our prayer, life provides what we need from our Good Shepherd.

From the Pastor's Desk

NO CHARGE

My little boy came into the kitchen this evening while I was fixing supper. And he handed me a piece of paper he'd been writing on. So, after wiping my hands on my apron, I read it, and this is what it said:

For mowing the grass, $5. For making my own bed this week, $1. For going to the store $.50. For playing with baby brother while you went shopping, $.25. For taking out the trash, $1. For getting a good report card, $5. And for raking the yard, $2.

Well, I looked at him standing there expectantly, and a thousand memories flashed through my mind. So, I picked up the paper, and turning it over, this is what I wrote:

For the nine months I carried you, growing inside me, No Charge, for the nights I sat up with you, doctored you, prayed for you, No Charge, for the time and the tears, and the cost through the years, No Charge. For the nights filled with dread, and the worries ahead, there's No Charge. For advice and the knowledge, and the cost of your college, No Charge. For the toys, food, and clothes, and for wiping your nose, there's No Charge, Son. When you add it all up, the full cost of my love is No Charge.

Well, when he finished reading, he had great big tears in his eyes. And he looked up at me and he said, "Mama, I sure do love you" Then he took the pen and in great big letters he wrote, PAID IN FULL.

When you add it all up, the cost of real love in No Charge.

"And the prayer of faith shall save the sick, and the Lord shall raise him up". James 5:15

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED

We would like to begin offering bagels and coffee in the Parish Center after the 8:00 am and 11:15 am Masses once a month. This will give us all an opportunity to come together socially. We can catch up with people we haven't seen in a while and also have the opportunity to meet someone new. In order to do this we will need a group of volunteers for each of these Masses. The early crew would set up and serve and the later crew would serve and clean up. If this is something that you think you might be interested in helping with, please speak to Fr. Bob.

PENNY SOCIAL

We wish to thank all the teachers, children, families and parishioners who contributed gifts, time and energy to our Penny Social, this will provide resources for our Religious Education Program. Thanks to all.

PRAY FOR DECEASED:

Please keep in your prayers those who have recently died Fr. Thomas Lynch and Margaret Lynch. May perpetual light shine upon them. Amen.

rest in peace
