BRIEF SYNOPSIS OF SUNDAY READINGS

Primera Lectura: Eclesiastés 1:2, 2:21-23

"Vanidad de vanidades". A veces podemos trabajar por la riqueza, la sabiduría y el conocimiento solo para descubrir que se ha dejado para alguien que no se esforzó por conseguirlo. La ofrenda de nuestro trabajo, el cansancio y el dolor, si no es para Dios, también puede ser una especie de vanidad.

Drugie czytanie: Kolosan 3,1-5, 9-11

Paweł zachęca nas, byśmy szukali dobra i od Boga, zachęcając nas do skupienia się na sprawach duchowych. Przypomina nam, że jako chrześcijanie umarliśmy z Chrystusem i jesteśmy ukryci z Chrystusem, aż Jego chwała zostanie ponownie objawiona. Wszyscy jesteśmy jednym w Chrystusie.

Gospel: Luke 12:13-21

On being requested to settle a question of inheritance, Jesus heeds us to beware of all covetousness because our life does not consist on the wealth of possessions. Through the lesson of a parable Jesus reinforces this teaching, explaining that those who store up the treasures of wealth and possessions are not the richest in God's eyes.

A FRESH PERSPECTIVE ON THE SUNDAY READINGS

by Rev. William J. Reilly

"Someone in the crowd said to Jesus, 'Teacher, tell my brother to share the inheritance with me.' He replied, 'Friend, who appointed me as your judge and arbitrator?' Then he said to the crowd, 'Take care to guard against all greed, for though one may be rich, one's life does not consist of possessions.'... Thus will it be for all who save up treasure for themselves but are not rich in what matters to God."

Do you know anyone who had saved something special to bring to the next life? The adage 'you can't take it with you' is so true, but what shall I do with all I have?

If it is not something which can lead my soul to eternal life, I can rid myself of it. The recent expression about 'Black Lives Matter' should apply to all life from conception to natural death. The gift I have received can be shared with someone else in need.

Our society unfortunately places value on things, accumulation and earthly treasures. They mean nothing when we consider someone suffering with terminal illness, the ravages of war. Greed, or covetousness are on the list of capital sins, and contrary to our society's values. As disciples of the Lord we wish to avoid it.

ANNUAL SUMMER RAFFLE

We are bringing back our annual summer raffle this year. Tickets are $20 each. The prizes are: 1st $1500, 2nd $1000, 3rd $500. The drawing will be held on Sunday, September 4th after the 11:15 am Mass. Tickets will be available after Masses every weekend or at the Rectory.

YARD SALE

The Gardening Angels will sponsor a yard sale on the day of Bagel Fest (August 14th) in front of our Parish Center. If you would like to rent a table to sell your wares, please call the Rectory at 845-794-5577 and leave your name and phone number. Cost per table is $25.

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

Registration for the 2022-2023 school year for Religious Education has begun. Registration can be made online at <https://stpetersmonticello.org/religious-ed>.

Classes are held: Sunday, 9:30 am - 11:00 am, or Monday, 5:30 pm - 7:00 pm. Please register now to help us plan for the upcoming year. Thank you.

PARISH COUNCIL

We are going to "re-organize" the parish council. The purpose of the parish council is to advise the pastor in making decisions. They do not, in and of themselves, make those decisions. Meetings are held six times a year (every other month) and will be held on a weekday evening. The term will be for three years, although as we begin this re-organization, some members might be assigned for just one or two years so that we can get the balance of the council to where it should be.

To qualify for the council you should be at least 18 years old, have been an active member of the parish for at least 3 years (including regular attendance at Mass), and be a year round resident. Although our summer parishioners are a big part of our Parish, attending meetings would be difficult if you're not here full time.

If you would like to be considered for a place on the parish council, please see Fr. Bob after Mass to get an application.

ADULT CLASSES

We will begin classes in the fall for any adult who is interested in becoming Catholic or may need to complete their Sacraments of Initiation. Classes will be held in an informal setting with a discussion format. If you, or someone you know is interested please see or call Fr. Bob.

Also, any parishioner who would like to attend these classes for their own benefit/knowledge is welcome to join us.

NEW ALTAR SERVERS

We will have training for new altar servers early next month. If you are going into the 4th grade or higher this fall and are interested in serving at the altar during Mass, please call the office and leave your name and phone number. If you are unsure, please come to the training to see what it is about and then you can make a decision.
