I want to Follow Jesus

Many thanks to Lisa and Bob Hoffman for passing on this beautiful story from her friend, Rachel Hansen, about her daughter’s wish to be baptized. Lisa and Bob were so touched by the story, they wanted to share it.

"Mom, I am ready to be baptized," Anna said through her precious smile.

I wanted to hear her heart speak her own feelings, so I calmly asked her, "Why do you want to be baptized?"

"I want to follow Jesus."

Yes, that simple sentence is it.

She had many good questions, and we chatted about those questions while I prayed for God to help me answer them.

Anna was able to explain sin (making wrong choices against God's rules; God makes the rules—He made us), how we all sin, AND Jesus died for those sins, so we can be forgiven and enter heaven where Jesus has a special place for us. I made sure to explain how it is not perfection Jesus wants. We try not to make wrong choices or sin, but we are going to sometimes, as we are human. We need to confess that sin and accept God's Grace and Mercy through Jesus.

A couple of years ago, ANNA announced to me that she wanted to follow Jesus in her life, but she was afraid to be baptized. I was not expecting that conversation at four years of age. I took a breath and in my head prayed, "God, what do I do with her precious statement and heart? How do I explain all You are to a 4-year-old? Is she ready to understand? I felt the answer was from Matthew 19:14: "Let her come to me. Just let her come to me. Don't stop her." So, I followed that model, moving forward in her life. (No matter your age, "Come to Jesus is always a good answer.")

Since she was little, I have been amazed by the way ANNA PRAYS for others. Her questions about Jesus, God, the Bible, and current locations of Biblical events get me thinking, praying for direction, and researching answers. It is such a beautiful thing to experience, and I am so grateful that God has allowed me to have this gift and relationship-building with her and Jesus.

Lisa and Bob, we are honored to have you in our family/friend base. God has given us many people to love. Even though you may not be able to come, we are asking for your prayers over Anna's life, for her to follow Jesus all her days, show love and kindness, be strong and courageous, have Grace and Mercy, and to be active in knowing/learning/showing Jesus' love that lasts generations.

Transfiguration of the Lord

After six days Jesus took Peter, James, and John his brother, and led them up a high mountain by themselves. And he was transfigured before them; his face shone like the sun and his clothes became white as light. And behold, Moses and Elijah appeared to them, conversing with him. Then Peter said to Jesus in reply, "Lord, it is good that we are here. If you wish, I will make three tents here, one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah." While he was still speaking, behold, a bright cloud cast a shadow over them, then from the cloud came a voice that said, "This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased; listen to him." ~Matthew 17:1–5

All three of the Synoptic Gospels record the event of the Lord's Transfiguration (Matthew 17:1–8, Mark 9:2–8, Luke 9:28–36). Just prior to the Transfiguration, all three Gospels also record Jesus' trip to Caesarea Philippi with His disciples, located about thirty miles north of the Sea of Galilee. Caesarea Philippi was a primarily pagan Greek town occupied by the Romans. The Greek god Pan was worshiped there in a cave thought to be bottomless and often referred to as the gate to the netherworld because of its association with the pagan god. It was there that Jesus asked His disciples who they thought He was. Peter declared, "You are the Messiah, the Son of the living God." Jesus then blessed Peter and announced His intent to build His Church upon Peter, declaring that "the gates of the netherworld shall not prevail against it..." (Matthew 16:16–18).

After this significant exchange, Jesus began revealing to His disciples His impending fate—His journey to Jerusalem to suffer and die. Peter resisted this revelation, to which Jesus responded sternly, correcting Peter's human thinking with divine wisdom (Matthew 16:22–23).

This is the context of the Feast of the Transfiguration we celebrate today. First, Jesus proclaimed the triumph of His Church over evil. Second, He informed them that this victory would be achieved through His own suffering and death. Although the first message is encouraging, the second one is challenging to accept. According to the Gospels, Jesus allowed His disciples about a week to grapple with these teachings, a period that must have been tough for them.

Understanding their struggle, Jesus took His three closest companions, Peter, James, and John, up a high mountain. There He was transfigured before them, radiating pure white light, conversing with Moses and Elijah, and being affirmed in His identity by the Father.

This event was likely meant to reinforce His disciples' faith after a week of pondering Jesus' foretold suffering and death, along with His exhortation that they must follow Him. The Transfiguration affirmed Jesus' divinity and His relationship with the revered figures of Moses and Elijah. Furthermore, the Father in Heaven confirmed Jesus as His divine Son with whom He was well pleased.

After the Resurrection and Ascension of Jesus, these three Apostles shared their experience of the Transfiguration, fortifying others in the faith. This story is still shared today to strengthen us as we bear our own crosses.

The Feast of the Transfiguration is strategically placed forty days before the Feast of the Triumph of the Cross. Thus, the Transfiguration should be seen as a preparation for both the Cross of Christ and our participation in that triumph. According to the Gospel, we are called to take up our crosses and follow Jesus for the glory of the Father, the fulfillment of His will, and the good of the Church, which will always prevail against the gates of hell.

As you celebrate the Transfiguration today, look at this event as a foretaste of the reward awaiting you, and a source of encouragement to endure all sufferings for the final victory of Christ. The Christian life, as stated by Jesus Himself, is about suffering and dying out of love and with unwavering hope. By uniting our trials with Christ's Cross, we share in His glorious victory for all eternity.

My Transfigured Lord, You promise suffering and death to all who follow You, but You also promise the hope that awaits those who endure. Grant me the grace to endure every cross in life, uniting my sufferings with Yours, so that I may one day partake in the glory of eternal life in Heaven. Jesus, I trust in You. -My Catholic Life
