Deacon Zach Jones' Ordination

On Sunday a group of us returned from Rome where we attended Zach Jones' ordination as a deacon. Deacon Zach will be ordained a priest in Sioux City in June of next year. There were two groups of folks who attended the ordination from here; a group of Zach's peers who participate in a young adult Bible study here at St. Joe's and a group of family and friends from Milford and beyond. I think that all involved in the visit to Rome and the Ordination would describe the entire experience as a pilgrimage. We visited dozens of churches and monuments in Rome and Assisi, where St. Francis lived and died. We visited the Vatican Museum and the Sistine Chapel. We toured the excavations of the tomb of St. Peter beneath the Vatican Basilica. We visited ancient Roman buildings and we saw lots of beautiful art and architecture. We ate a lot of pasta and we walked and walked and walked ... (our cell phone "step tracker" told us that we averaged about eight miles a day on foot... with some days more than 10 miles.) We spent part of each day in prayer and went to Mass daily. We had a roof top terrace at the Convent where we stayed and we talked into the night about our faith, the history of the Church and analyzed the beautiful things we saw each day. The young among us rode electric scooters through ancient Rome and the "older" sat and sipped a glass of wine while the young lads sped by. Clearly the highlight of the trip was the beautiful ordination of a dozen young men as deacons for dioceses throughout the United States and three from

News From St. Joseph Parish

Fr. Hughes

Australia. The ordination at St. Peter's Basilica was overwhelmingly beautiful; the music, the splendid setting, the solemn ceremonies were all very moving. Zach was clearly joyful throughout the ceremony and we all joined in prayer with him as we called down the saints upon him as he laid on the stone floor and begged for God's grace. Cardinal Wilton Gregory of Washington DC ordained the men while three other Cardinals, a dozen bishops, more than 250 priests and a thousand guests prayed. It was a once in a lifetime event and we are all very grateful that we had the chance to be part of such a beautiful event. Please pray for Deacon Zach as he studies this year and makes the final preparations for his Ordination in June.

Custodial Position

Shane Akin has served as our part time Custodian for the past two years. In the last months Shane's fishing guide business has taken off in a big way and he is finding it difficult to fit our parish needs into his busy schedule. Shane would like to resign his position here at St. Joe's but is willing to help us train a new Custodian. We are looking for someone who can work 10-20 hours per week with a vary flexible schedule. If you are interested in a part time Custodian position here at St. Joseph, we would be happy to chat with you about the part time job. Please call the parish offices for more information.

In today's Gospel, Jesus asks the rich young man to give away all that he has in order to have treasure in heaven. But he is unable to free himself from his possessions, and so he goes sadly away. Does what I own keep me from following Jesus?
