Form Community. Share the Good News of Christ. Be Witnesses for Christ in Everything We Do.

A recent blanket of pristine snow has covered the ground, with northerly winds and single digit winter cold. I'm caught between seeing the beauty out my window or simply bundling up and heading outdoors with a quiet wisp of hope for an early spring. Just received my bi-monthly AARP magazine, which classifies me as old, I guess. I'm not quite ready for Geritol but frankly, I do enjoy some of the articles. One of which I browsed, "99 Ways To Add Healthy Years To Your Life," perked my interest and my chagrin. Some of their 'suggestions' are worth considering, but others I'm in doubt about: "Snap A Selfie; Floss; Ride In The Back (of a plane when flying); Think Young; Pray For Longer Life."

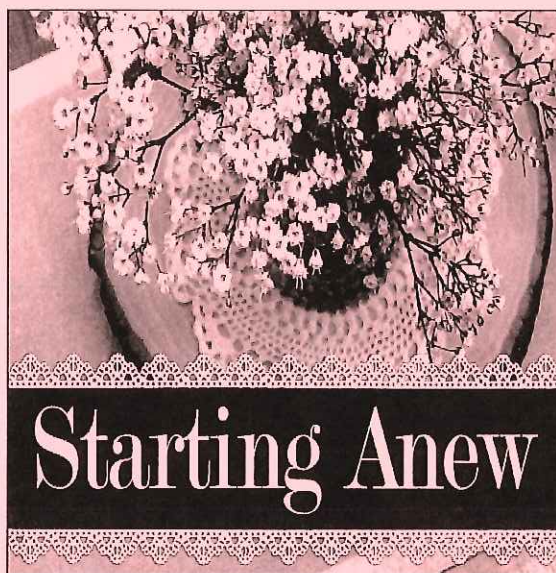

I'm sorry, but added years does not quantify a 'good life.' A person who reaches ninety may or may not have the same quantity of life as someone who dies before they reach half that age. After all, Billy Joel once commented, "Only the good die young." Whatever length of life God grants us here on earth may we mindful of "Kairos" time (God's time of specific moments and opportunities) rather than "Chronos" time (Quantifiable seconds and minutes, time as a measurable resource). Rather than 'praying for a longer life,' I place forth these ten suggestions for a healthier Kairos life, (in no particular order):

1. Allow yourself moments of silence, whether driving, at work, home or simply outdoors—without thought to the length of time. ("Be still, and know that I am God." Psalm 46:10)

2. "Bite your tongue" when about to speak out of anger or pass on negative information about another. Pause and let the moment pass. As Barney would tell Andy, "Nip it in the bud." ("Do not let any unwholesome talk come out of your mouths . . ." Ephesians 4:29)

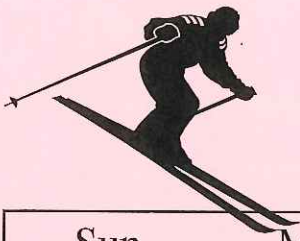

3. "Tusen Takk." These two Norwegian words express heartfelt gratitude to another. Two simple words, "thank you," can be profound if offered with sincere kindness. Not "you are the greatest" or "you are the best," just two simple words however simple or modest the gift received. ("I thank my God in all my remembrance of you." Philippians 1:3)

4. Step outside and notice nature. On the coldest evenings and early mornings the constellations echo the face of God our Creator. A sunrise or sunset is never redundant or monotonous, but an invitation to a beginning and a culmination. ("Let the heavens rejoice, let the earth be glad. . . (Psalm 96:11-12)

5. Write a letter or a few words on a notecard to someone, anyone. As a friend reminded me some years back, such handwritten words can be a "God letter," extending a presence of your remembering and caring to another. ("You are our letter, written in our hearts. . ." 2 Corinthians 3:2-3)

6. Create something, anything; whether a meal, a baked good or a simple project around the house. As a French professor reminded his class, "We are co-creators with God, creating spaces of goodness, gratitude, caring, hopefulness." ("For every house is built by someone, but God is the builder of everything." Hebrews 3:4)

7. Pray, not for a longer life but to be in the presence of God. Not always with repetitive words or form prayers, but as so many young persons do: simply pausing and talking with God, listening to his grace in the silence. A sign of the cross is a good beginning and ending, and in between the honesty of 'where have I walked with Jesus this day, and where have I not.' ("And when you pray, do not heap up empty phrases as the Gentiles do, for they think that they will be heard for their many words." MT 6:7)

8. Share. It may be a bit of your time listening or being present to another, at home or at work, with a neighbor or visiting someone in a care center; or possibly something of value to be given quietly to someone in need. ("Each one must give as he has decided in his heart, not reluctantly or under compulsion, for God loves a cheerful giver." 2Corinthians 9:6-8)

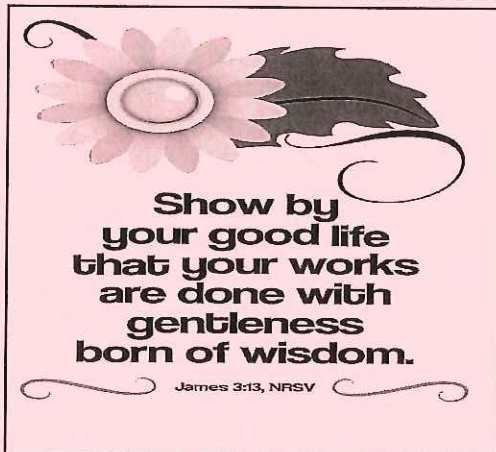

9. Read a bit, and not from a screen. As Dr. Seuss reminds us, "The more that you read, the more things you will know. The more that you learn, the more places you'll go." ("The unfolding of your words gives light; it imparts understanding to the simple." Psalm 119:130)

10. Be the person God created you to be. Not in a competitive nature of a lesser or greater than another. As quoted from the Desiderata: "Be yourself. Especially, do not feign affection. Neither be cynical about love; for in the face of all aridity and disenchantment it is as perennial as the grass." ("and what does the Lord require of you: but to do justice, and to love kindness and to walk humbly with your God." Micah 6:8)

And if you must floss, walk on the wild side and use the mint flavor.

God Bless, Fr. Tim

Together In Faith

By Sharon Mayer
Director of Faith Formation

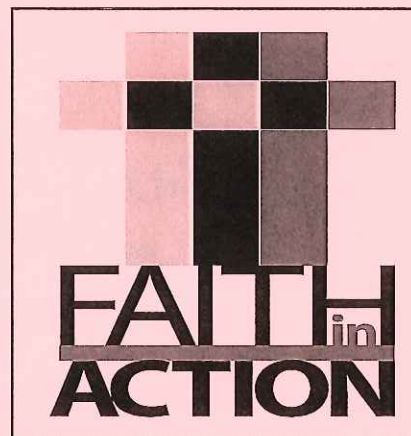

Love 2 U. With fond memories of that license plate and the woman who owned it, I begin this February newsletter. Not only was it on her license plate but she always said it as she bid goodbye to you after a conversation. I am speaking of course of Georgia Sheley who was a long time member of our parish and community who has passed now to greet all those who enter heaven with, I'm sure, the same words. I think of her often as I remember how she interacted with love, whoever she met and especially children whom she enjoyed sharing knowledge with. It was always others she put first.

I was taught to do the same. Almost daily during school, we were told to put other's needs before our own. As Jesus would do so should you. During February, the month of "love" I try to remember that. Is this an old-fashioned idea? Quite often I let someone go before me at the grocery line. I yield in traffic even if I should not have too and believe me that is hard for me! I guess I think it is just better overall to not have the whole day be stressful. These small things do show love even though the other person may never know it.

Family and friends exchange Valentine wishes on the 14th to show their love and caring for one another. It is celebrated worldwide and credit is given to St. Valentine for it. I am not sure we actually celebrate it as his feast day in our church though. We do, however, celebrate the Feast of St. Blaise with the blessing of throats on Feb. 3. I have always believed in that blessing.

In February we will have two class Masses, seventh and eighth grades on Feb. 10 and first grade on Feb. 24. Right after that our 7-12 grades students will be treated to a Mardi Gras celebration. This biannual event begins with a short Mardi Gras lesson followed by a dinner buffet then a crowning of a King and Queen to reign over the evening. This comes with gifts. There will be door prizes through the evening and "Best Dressed" in theme colors awards. Games follow and toward the end, those who would like to, get a shot at and a share of a piñata filled with the good stuff- CHOCOLATE! It is quite a fun evening for our students before the following week which is Ash Wednesday and the beginning of Lent. This event comes with a goodly amount of preparation so if you feel "game" to help please get a hold of me.

PANCAKES!

We've Found Our Cooks!

With Ash Wednesday falling on Wed., March 6, it's time to begin thinking about getting our Lenten Soup Suppers organized.

Each Tuesday during Lent, there will be Mass at 5:15 p.m. with soup to follow. This year (2019), the first soup supper will be held on Ash Wed., March 6 and then continue for six Tuesdays evenings March 12, March 19, March 26, April 2, April 9 and April 16 following the 5:15 p.m. Mass.

We have found our volunteers and cooks who are willing to make their favorite kind of soup. The parish pays for the soup ingredients., The group must prepare the soup, serve it and clean up following the supper. Call the office or one of the group heads if you would like to help in this fun experience.

Not only is the soup delicious, but the fellowship is outstanding. A free will offering will be taken at each supper to help defray the cost of the soup. Following is a list of the Lent Soup Supper dates. Call the office if you want to volunteer for any of these dates. Thanks to all who have volunteered.

Ash Wednesday, March 6: CDA
Tuesday, March 12: Jones Crew
Tuesday, March 19: Reiser Crew
Tuesday, March 26: Family Formation
Tuesday, April 2: Knights of Columbus
Tuesday, April 9: Rosary Altar Society
Tuesday, April 16: Elser Crew

Lent, Triduum, Easter

1. LENTEN REGULATIONS ON FASTING

1. Ash Wednesday is a day of fast and abstinence. This means that all those between 18 and 59 years of age, who are otherwise in good health, should eat only one full meal on Ash Wednesday. Two lighter meals are also permitted. In addition, the law of abstinence requires that all those 14 years of age or older abstain from eating meat on Ash Wednesday.

2. Similarly, Good Friday is also a day of fast and abstinence. The same rules apply as for Ash Wednesday.

3. The Fridays of Lent are to be observed as days of abstinence—that is, meat should not be included in the menus of that day.

4. Each individual Catholic should resolve upon some other good work or act of penance during the Lenten Season. Above all, this should be a season of prayer, of joining with our brothers and sisters in the faith by assisting at Mass, by the reception of the sacraments, by generosity to religious and charitable causes, and in other good works.

2. THE SACRAMENT OF RECONCILIATION

A. Communal Penance Services are set for Sun., March 31 at 1 p.m. at St. Joseph.

B. Sacrament of Reconciliation, 30 minutes before daily and weekend masses.

3. ALMSGIVING

Traditionally, almsgiving took the form of giving money to the poor and to other worthy causes. The term has been expanded to include any outreach of time, talent, money or service in behalf of those in any need. During Lent, there are a number of collections taken up for the need of the Church throughout the world and in this country:

a. FIRST SUNDAY OF LENT (March 9-10, 2019) Now known as Aid to Global Churches, this collection combines previous collections for Central and Eastern Europe, Latin America, Africa and Catholic Relief Services. An envelope for this collection is included in your mailing.

b. GOOD FRIDAY (April 19, 2019) This is a worldwide Collection for the sacred places in the Holy Land. Our offerings maintain and support the shrines remembering events of our Lord's life, death and resurrection in the Holy Land. There is an envelope in your mailing for this collection marked "Holy Land."

e. EASTER VIGIL AND EASTER SUNDAY (April 20-21, 2019) This is the annual collection for Retired and Infirm Priests. An envelope for this purpose is in your mailing.

CDA Layette

Catholic Daughters, St. Joseph Court Our Lady of Las Salette, invites the St. Joseph parishioners to join us into February as we collect our annual layette, a worthy cause we have sponsored for over 30 years.

A beautiful cradle in the foyer will be the drop-off point. Any new infant item is appreciated. These items will be presented at our February meeting to Lakes Regional Hospital, as well as Birth Right and Catholic Charities located in Spencer. Last year we also contributed infant needs to Discovery House. Catholic Charities, Spencer, has additionally expressed a need for items useful for 2-4 years olds such as board books, learning toys, etc. used most often in parenting classes.

We thank you pre-emptively for your contribution and will keep you informed as to the delivery of the gifts.

Knights News St Joseph Council 7284 January Review

Spelling Bee Contest – Word lists are out for those in grades 4, 5, 6 and 7. The contest is Monday February 4 at the Okoboji Middle School Music Room. Some hands are needed. Volunteers should be there shortly after 3 so we can get ready for the registration and then the judging about 3:30.

Christmas Food Boxes – The Knights from Council 7284 did it again! There were 27 boxes of food delivered to people, from 1 to 14 in a household. It is estimated that we took about 1 ton (2,000 lbs.) to homes. We had twelve or so Knights boxing the nonperishable foods on Dec 18th and then twelve again for delivery on Friday, Dec 21st. Thanks to Teresa Goehring, there were several young adults back around for Christmas break that did the 'heavy lifting' for us and Teresa was also in on the delivery. Thanks to Doug Heller and Chris Jones for coordinating the project.

Keep Christ in Christmas Poster Contest – Terry Abbas headed up the activity this year in a similar way we have done it in the past. It is for boys and girls of ages 5-7, 8-10, and 11-14. This activity is NOT by school grades, but rather by age. We found there was some confusion on this. We had 18 entries this year. A record. With that, we had only one in the upper age group. Recognition was given to all and then to the top three in each age group on Wednesday, December 19th, during Religious Education for the classes. We have submitted the top winners to the State competition. We thank the teachers who helped with the project and a special thank you to Sharon Mayer for her time. Terry has taken a lot of notes as how to enhance the competition for next year. The Knights will take a more active role in the project.

Altar Servers Appreciation – It was a hit! We had 14 youth participants for an afternoon of bowling during Christmas break. The Knights 'stood by' and 'watched over' the bowlers. Our Council paid for the bowling and a lunch to all those that attended. Terry Abbas coordinated the activity for this year. Will it be an Annual Event??

1st, 2nd and 3rd Degree Ceremonies – Spencer is hosting all three Degree Ceremonies on February 24th.

Membership Dues – Brad has sent out notices. Please send your money back to Brad as soon as you can. That way it will reduce our cost of the second and third mailings.

A Note From Fr. Tim

Without printing any names, the accompanying list shows the contributions made by our parishioners in the weekly offerings. About 36 percent of the registered households made a donation of $500 or more, while about 39 percent of our 670 families did not use their envelopes to make a contribution. We are grateful to all of you who have helped to support the work of our parish through your financial contributions.

Whatever you are able to give is between you and God. It is good to remember that God can never be outdone in the many, many blessings He bestows upon each of us; especially, His personal love and healing grace within our lives. With that in mind, please review your weekly budget and determine what fair amount you can return to God for all the good things God does for you.

Thank you for what you are able to share with our parish family, especially your presence and faith within our liturgies and gatherings.

May God Bless You,

Fr. Tim
