Form Community. Share the Good News of Christ. Be Witnesses for Christ in Everything We Do.

"There is nothing so stable as change." (Bob Dylan)

In the mid 1990's Bishop Soens asked me to move from my first parish in Sioux City, serving as an associate pastor under Fr. Paul Arts. Though inevitable I nonetheless found this transition difficult. Another pastor in Sioux City at the time, Fr. Larry McCarty, visited with me, explaining such was normal to experience feelings of loss moving from your first parish. Eventually I acclimated to my new parish and assigned duties. With subsequent moves—packing stuff and letting go of stuff—the experience of it all did not necessarily make it easier to say goodbye. And thus, leaving St. Joseph earlier than planned again finds me at a loss to properly say goodbye. I have been blessed by your hospitality and a presence of conviviality within the Eucharist—shared equally amongst parishioners and visitors alike.

mission possible. As I have experienced, the pinnacle and character of all that takes place here in the life of our parish is the blessing of hospitality. Parishioners and visitors alike feel welcomed, thus enabling us to pray together with hope, to share in the music lifting up our prayers, to graciously receive Communion without judgment, and in turn to generously share our resources of presence, of caring, of graciously sharing our resources.

For those who belong to our parish, those who return every summer and those who simply happen across our parish and the Eucharist, may the Christian character of our parish always reflect a presence of welcoming. Each of us are on a different journey of faith and our parish must remain the harbor for all to be received, and ultimately find a home within the Eucharist that calls us together.

Fr. Tim's Message

Thank you for allowing me to feel "at home" within your parish and your lives. As Maya Angelo reminds us, "The ache for home lives in all of us. The safe place where we can go as we are and not be questioned." You allowed me to share my character and journey of faith with you, in the Eucharist, the Sacraments, in parish endeavors, socially and personally within your families. Recently I baptized the first child of the first couple I married here at St. Joseph nearly four years ago. Though grateful for such an experience, it nonetheless is bittersweet realizing such opportunities for me at St. Joseph will end. There marriage and the baptism of their first child is a grateful reminder of the cycle of life and significantly, the cycle of faith drawing us home again to our faith and the encounter of Christ Jesus within the Eucharist and the community of St. Joseph Parish.

Fr. Brian Hughes is a gifted pastor, spiritually and liturgically. Having served previously at St. Mary Parish in Spirit Lake he understands the people and the culture of our Catholic faith in the lakes region. He will certainly receive the grace of your hospitality as a parish, and the prayerfulness of our liturgies.

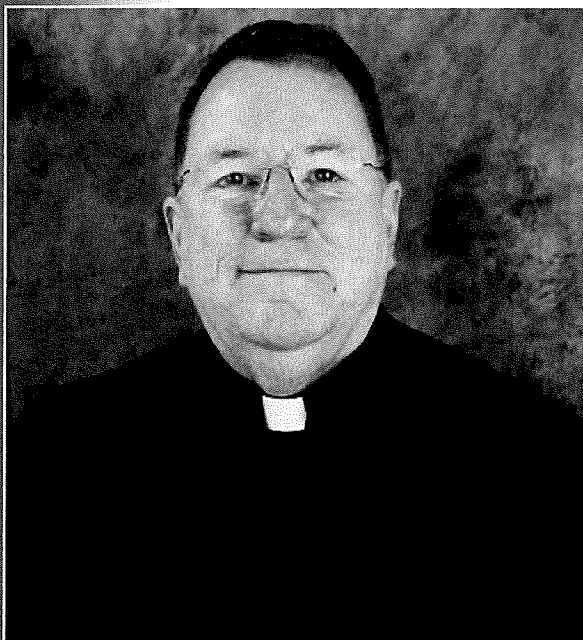

As I write this column it is the first day of winter, thus a few words of inspiration "What good is the warmth of summer, without the cold of winter to give it sweetness." (God bless John Steinbeck and his travels with his dog, Charley.) Likewise will be your faith that has endured through these months of the Coronavirus guidelines and restrictions, again bringing you back to share in the Eucharist, welcoming friends and neighbors, visitors and strangers, and nurturing the gift of hope within your homes and families. Thank you to the staff here at St. Joseph—their dedication, caring and welcoming spirit—the many volunteers who willingly share their time, and you as a parish, allowing me to feel at home. Goodbyes have never been my forte, so its best if I leave you the sentiment of Winnie The Pooh: "How lucky I am to have something that makes saying goodbye so hard."

Happy New Year, and may God Bless,

Fr. Tim

Together In Faith

By Sharon Mayer
Director of Faith Formation

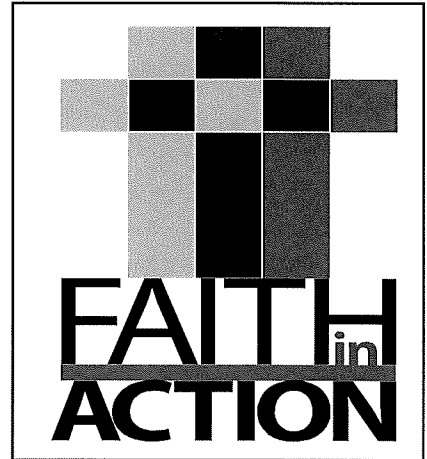

Happy New 2021! We have come through the worst year for many that they have experienced. Hope is the operative word for 2021. Hope in the new vaccines that we have been blessed to receive to combat COVID and hope that with God's help we see an upturn in our economy and way of life.

We normally look to the beginning of a new year as a time to "start" over in some areas. Maybe it is in our personal outlook on things to take care of that we let go, maybe a new look in our home, maybe try some new recipes, travel to a new destination, get comfortable with your faith again. Whatever it might be, this is the time. 2020 seemed to make us all stall in whatever we were doing. Classes at school halted until fall then resumed, travel halted, some business halted or was drastically changed, attending church and religious education halted or changed. It is almost mind-boggling what has happened. So just how resilient are we?

Very is the answer. After all, God made us with everything we needed to battle the foe with his help. With faith and prayer God can see us through the worst of times. We would like to think that we will not have to experience difficult times but that is just not what life is. As we begin this year, chin up, rely on God, give Him your share of time for worship and prayer and know we will be okay.

I do not know when our religious education classes will resume again. In the meantime, I will forge ahead with lessons sent home but ask parents help in carrying them out. Sacraments are still on track and those are especially important. Tenth graders are to be Confirmed in March and second graders receive First Eucharist in April. All learning about our faith is important.

Also, this month we say goodbye to Fr. Tim who begins his new assignment in Boone and welcome to Fr. Hughes. Some of you may know Fr. Hughes already as he used to be the pastor in Spirit Lake. We wish Fr. Tim the very best and I am sure if he isn't a cyclone fan yet, he soon will be! As many travel from here to Ames, Boone is on the way so you can always stop. He has been blessed to have many friends along the way and this will just add to that group. In the coldness of January it is nice to have the warmth of friendship.

Welcome, 2021!

Deb presented bills in the amount of $128.90 for postage and advertising and one to DCN for $32.68 for our ad for Veterans Day ad. There was no report from the financial secretary. We tabled the education contest until December as there are no religious education classes as this time. Bonnie Duhn will take care of our Tree of Love gifts this year. Cheryl made a motion seconded by Darlene that we can take up to $100 from our treasury to supplement the funds in our 50/50 account. Christmas gifts will be given to Fr. Tim, Fr. Tom and per a motion from Darlene and Donna, we will be sending $25.00 to each of our seminarians. Ramona sent a report that our Prayer Ministry is going well and that cards for Christmas will be going out soon. Darlene and Deb will be taking down the Table of Remembrance this year. Deb will have a budget ready for our approval at the next meeting. Our First Reconciliation lunch was appreciated by the students and their guests. Deb asked that members be considering being a delegate or alternate to the state convention next spring. More details in December.

Karen read a prayer on surviving this COVID-19 pandemic for good of the order.
